Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 578.

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Glen Mills Schools, situated in Delaware County, Pennsylvania.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I should like to have it known that at my request the sponsors of a number of bills on second reading have kindly consented not to call them up at this particular time, because of a previous engagement by practically all the Members of this House, for which I am very grateful.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024), entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare, by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments, with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment; by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work; by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others; by prescribing penalties for violations thereof; by defining the procedure in prosecutions; and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof," providing for payment of time and one half for overtime; changing hours of labor and restrictions relative to age in certain employments; and extending provisions to include additional persons.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Mercer permit herself to be interrogated?

Mrs. DYE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the lady from Mercer if I understand correctly that she has another bill, House Bill 195 which is a sort of companion bill to this bill. Is that correct?

Mrs. DYE. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. That will be all. I thank the lady.

Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of the bill says that she has another bill which is known as House Bill 195 which is sort of a companion bill. I would like to have this bill re-committed so that we may consider these two companion bills together in committee, and if the sponsor of the bill has no objection I would so move.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I move to recommit this bill to the Committee on Labor Relations so that this bill and the companion bill may be considered together.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I prefer to have one bill at a time considered, and I would ask the Members to vote against having this bill re-committed.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman has made a motion to re-commit; is that correct.

Mr. LOVETT. That is correct, Mr. Speaker. I would like to say one word more, Mr. Speaker.

I feel that the sponsor of the bill has admitted that House Bill No. 195 is a sort of companion bill to House Bill 35. Now, I feel that we have the cart before the horse. If there is any interest in the women workers of Pennsylvania I feel that the benefits that will be derived will be in House Bill 195, rather than in House Bill 35, so therefore I feel that the Members of this House should re-commit this bill to the Committee on Labor so that we can consider both of these bills at the same time in the Committee.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I object to the gentleman speaking on House Bill No. 195 when House Bill No. 35 is under consideration.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Lovett and Mr. Petrosky and were as follows:

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill if he will pass the bill until tomorrow? Delaware County has a large pension fund and under the terms of this act it looks as if it would have a considerable affect on that fund. I would like to have some amendments made.

Mr. WILLIAM J. REILLY. As I understand this bill, Mr. Speaker, I feel satisfied it will have no effect whatever on the pension fund set up as stated by the gentleman from Delaware County. I will give in to the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, and not call the bill up at this time.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. CHUDOFF,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 490, as follows:

An Act providing that certain defendants who are acquitted shall not be required to give bonds or recognizances to keep the peace

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 In all cases where a defendant has been found not guilty by a jury or by a judge sitting without a jury he or she shall not be required for any reason to furnish a bond or recognizance to keep the peace

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman whether this bill if passed will function to apply to magistrates?

Mr. CHUDOFF. No, Mr. Speaker, this bill only applies to courts of record.

Mr. O'DONNELL. If a defendant were acquitted because of a miscarriage of justice, either because of the witness not properly testifying or telling an untruth or because of lack of prosecution or the witness remaining away, does the gentleman not feel that the court, having knowledge of those facts should hold the defendant under bail to keep the peace?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I do not, Mr. Speaker. I feel that the defendant once having been acquitted should not be allowed to be put in double jeopardy by a court committing him to prison, or a jury finding him not guilty.

Mr. O'DONNELL. May I further ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, whether he would keep the same mind whether the defendant were acquitted because of a miscarriage of justice or in true defense of his action?

Mr. CHUDOFF. In answer to that question, Mr. Speaker, I say that a defendant having been tried by a jury under the Constitution of Pennsylvania and having been acquitted, I do not think that is a miscarriage of justice.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that certain defendants get off on serious charges in criminal actions because of mere technicalities, or because perhaps by agreement between the prosecution and the defense?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I do not know, Mr. Speaker, whether they get off by agreement. That is a conspiracy to obstruct justice. However, there are technicalities made by lawyers which are sometimes upheld by the court, but that is the law and can be corrected by the Legislature.

Mr. O'DONNELL. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, with respect to House Bill 490, Printer's No. 69, I think it would be an improper measure and a curtailment of the duties and responsibilities which we impose upon our Judges sitting in courts of record. I believe we have entrusted those men who have the robe to decide the case and impose the penalties of the law with the duty of protecting the public. I think if this bill is passed, by its tenor a judge who is trying to do the right thing, namely, to hold responsible or keep off the streets a bad person who by reason of his finances or perhaps political affiliation or because of technicalities can result in a trial going the way he wishes the trial to go. I think the judge who has the experience of a man practicing law before he takes the judgeship, and has seen the trial of cases while a judge knows that certain witnesses are forced to remain away from the court. Perhaps that witness is a witness whose testimony would tend to impose a verdict of guilty on the defendant. I think the court in that case is duty bound to hold such acquitted defendant under bail to keep the peace. We have also found that perhaps witnesses give a different story or commit perjury, which fact is very difficult to prove. I think that the judge in his wisdom should retain and have that power to hold the defendant under bail to keep the peace if the witness' testimony results in a miscarriage of justice.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I think I have stated enough to put my position on the record with reference to House Bill 490, Printer's No. 69, which I submit is improper legislation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, there is about to be reported from committee a bill on closing banks on Saturdays. There were five bills in the legislature, three in the House and two in the Senate. The members of the House very graciously consented that their bills remain in committee.

of ownership, I have been informed that it is to be Senate Bill 38, which was introduced by a member of the Senate by the name of Frazier. This Senator conferred with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Lord, who also had introduced a similar bill and Senator Lord very graciously consented to have his bill remain in committee and cooperate with this fellow Frazier to get his bill out.

Senator Frazier wants to cooperate and would very much appreciate if Senate Bill 38 be now known as the Frazier-Lord Bill.

REPORT ON SAFETY CONDITIONS, JONES AND LAUGHLIN PLANT, ALIQUIPPA, PA.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, under the business of reports from committees I am directed by the Committee on Labor and Industry to make this report for the record.

On February 18, 1947, Senator Louis Klein introduced in the Senate a resolution relating to the safety provisions in the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation at its Aliquippa plant. At a committee meeting held on March 11 I was directed to get in touch with the Secretary of Labor and Industry and ask that an investigation be made. This was done. At a meeting of the committee this morning the report of the investigator sent by the Department of Labor and Industry was made to the committee and I was directed to have that report filed at this time, in answer to the resolution introduced by the gentleman from mBeaver, Senator Klein.

Therefore, Mr. President, I wish to have this report spread upon the Legislative Journal. It is too voluminous to read at this time.

The PRESIDENT. There being no objection, the report will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

REPORT ON CONDITIONS AT JONES AND LAUGHLIN ALIQUIPPA PLANT

March 15, 1947.

Subject: Jones & Laughlin Company
Aliquippa Plant
Aliquippa, Pa.

To: Thomas J. Quigley, Director
Bureau of Inspection

From: Ross R. Hill, Supv. Inspector
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Complying with your request for a general inspection and investigation of safety conditions in the Open Hearth and Bessemer Departments of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation, Aliquippa, Pa., I hereby submit the following:

I accompanied Inspectors W. J. Beglin, George Hartenstein and Ralph W. Meanor on this assignment.

The inspection was made both during the day and night while the first, second and third shifts were working. Order No. 435-11-72 containing nine (9) items was issued, copy or order which is attached.

Three items were for enforcement of employees wearing safety equipment provided for their safety and six items which the company will comply with at once.

The procedure, practices and working conditions are similar in all open hearth and Bessemer operations, and our investigation discloses that the safety conditions in this plant compare favorably with any of the other open Hearth and Bessemer plants in the Pittsburgh district.

However, in all Open Hearth and Bessemer furnace operations which have to do with molten metal, there is always prevalent occupational hazards.

The company is making a sincere effort to prevent accidents and they have a progressive, well planned and functioning safety organization, consisting of Safety Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent and two safety engineers working full time on safety work.

The records show that during 1946, 1025 Safety Meetings were held in the Open Hearth and Bessemer Departments with an average attendance of 86 employees per meeting. The average daily employees in these departments is 517.

The company made an expenditure of $14,804.98 for goggles and $16,835.24 for wool clothing in 1946. It is further revealed that in the same year the Aliquippa plant had an expenditure for the employment of nurses and doctors on a 24 hour basis, hospital, etc. of $100,798.00.

My records show that Inspector W. J. Beglin was in the Aliquippa plant six times in 1946, making special inspections and he reports that the management is very cooperative with this Department.

The investigation will be continued until Inspector Beglin has completed his general inspection of the entire plant.

Plant Railway Regulations—Section 2 Paragraph A—Provides for automatic or pin and link type couplings. It also provides wherever possible automatic couplings be provided. On July 11, 1946 orders were issued by Inspector Beglin for semi-automatic couplings on the cars. Order No. 79644 was placed with the Pennsylvania Engineering Works at New Castle for eight new ingot cars complete semi-automatic couplings. The order was placed by Jones & Loughlin Steel Co. but up to the present time the cars have not been delivered.

Very truly yours,

ROSS R. HILL,
Supervising Inspector

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President, in connection with the report just submitted by the chairman of the Committee on Labor and Industry, I would ask unanimous consent to make a brief statement.

The PRESIDENT. The chair hearing no objections, the gentleman from Beaver will proceed.

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, first of all I want to express my deep thanks to the chairman of the Committee on Labor and Industry, and to the members of that committee for their consideration in this matter, which to me is very important.

Senator Berger has been kind enough to let me have a copy of the statement he has just submitted. In this statement, after the investigation made by the Department of Labor and Industry, the Department of Labor and Industry agrees that the work in the open hearth and Bessemer Department of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation is of an extremely hazardous nature and that the employes in that plant are subject to dangers that could and should in some instances be removed.

Specifically the department cites nine cases where improvement could be brought about.

This proves to me very conclusively that something has been wrong at that plant. I call this to your attention because only recently four men were dismissed from the employ of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation because they violated their contract by going out on strike. Their complaints were these same things that the Department of Labor and Industry agrees with.

It is unfortunate, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, that four men are now deprived of a livelihood because they saw fit to fight against conditions which were extremely dangerous and which were the cause of serious injuries and in some instances the loss of lives. It is extremely unfortunate that these four men, three of whom were men who had rendered faithful services to their country during this last war, today find themselves without jobs because they had just cause for complaint, but, as it always the case, some men must make sacrifices in order that future generations or future employes may derive some real benefit. Unfortunately for these men and their families they must now, after having had seniority, seek new employment and new means of earning a living.

I only call these things to the attention of this Senate because I am confident that the Committee on Labor and Industry will follow this thing through and that they will insist that the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation put into practice those things ordered by the Department of Labor and Industry and I hope that if these things are done, if this committee continues to be vigilant in this matter, that it will not again be necessary for any men, especially men who have served their country faithfully and well, be thrown out of work and be compelled to seek new ways to earn a living.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, in presenting a bill, I desire to make a very brief statement.

This bill calls for a re-organization of the Board of Revision of Taxes in the City of Philadelphia. As we all know, the Board of Revision of Taxes is primarily a creature of the Legislature, and appears to be responsible to no other branch of local or city government.

Notwithstanding charges made by various scientific groups concerning their method of assessing properties, they still cling to an old and outmoded system. As a result there have been wholesale iniquities and lack of uniformity in the appraisal and assessment of properties. It is very important, therefore, that some changes be made so as to correct these wholesale iniquities, particularly in view of the fact that 50 per cent of the general fund revenue of the city of Philadelphia and nearly 100 per cent of the funds to finance the public school system are largely dependent upon the assessed valuations, especially by the Board of Revision of Taxes. In addition, the borrowing capacity and the debt limitation are either directly or indirectly affected by these assessments.

There have been, further, indiscriminate raising of the valuations of properties without any scientific basis. Consequently it becomes increasingly important that changes be made in the method of selection of the members of the Board, and in their place select men who are by experience and ability qualified for the said positions. There are two gentlemen now on the board, who, if left to their own devices, are willing to subscribe to any new plan that would help the city of Philadelphia. They are Fred Lyness and William Hamilton. The chairman of the board is too steeped in politics to heed the advice of experts, and definitely refuses to subscribe to any constructive plan.

The first bill amends the law by requiring that board be made up of one attorney, one civil engineer, one realtor with ten years experience, and four men who have had at least ten years experience in appraising and assessing properties.

The second bill requires that before any appointment can be made or vacancy filled, it shall require a two-third vote of the Board of Judges. This is rendered necessary so as to reduce the element of politics to a minimum in the choice of the members of the board.

The third bill provides that where an assessor has served for at least ten years, he can not be removed without cause and a hearing. Until now, there was great danger of removing experienced men for political reasons.

I hope the Legislature sees fit to pass these bills as quickly as possible, so as to remedy what is known as a deplorable situation in the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. JASPAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 465, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 1199), entitled "An act relating to the assessment of real and personal property and other subjects of taxation in counties of the first class; providing for the appointment of members of the board of revision of taxes by the judges of the courts of common pleas; providing for the appointment, by the board, of personal property assessors, real estate assessors and assistant real estate assessors, clerks and other employe; fixing the salaries of members of the board, assessors and assistant assessors, and providing for the payment of salaries and expenses from the county treasury; prescribing the powers and duties of the board and of the assessors, the time and manner of making assessments, of the revision and notice of assessments and of appeals therefrom; prescribing the records of assessments; and repealing existing laws," by changing the qualifications of the members of the board and reducing their salaries.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 466, entitled:

An Act to amend section nineteen of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. ## RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, The resolution which I am about to present is one which vitally affects the lives and well-being of all those that are employed in the bituminous and anthracite coal mines within the limits of this great Commonwealth.

I take the position that, during the war years, we might have been somewhat lax in the enforcement of all safety provisions controlling the mining of coal, and I believe that now would be the opportune time for the Bureau of Mines to send their inspectors into the coal fields and make a check as to compliance with all safety regulations. The time is opportune because of the coal mine memorial period which exists at the present time, and I feel, and according to the newspapers, if all safety regulations had been complied with at Centralia, Illinois, this great disaster might have been averted.

Ordinarily, I would not ask for unanimous consent for the consideration of any resolution, but, in view of the circumstances at this particular time, and in order to expedite the inspection of these mines, I earnestly request unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of this resolution.

RESOLUTIONS

DEPARTMENT OF MINE TO CONDUCT A THOROUGH INSPECTION OF MINES DURING SIX DAY MEMORIAL PERIOD

Messrs. LANE, HOLLAND and TARR offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, April 1, 1947.

Whereas, The recent catastrophe at Centralia, Illinois, took a toll of the lives of more than one hundred bituminous coal miners; and

Whereas, Bituminous mines throughout the country will be idle for a six-day memorial period, in memory of those who died in that disaster; and

Whereas, Such memorial period offers an excellent opportunity to inspect and re-check safety conditions in both the bituminous and anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania against the happening of a disaster such as occurred at Centralia; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Senate directs the Department of Mines to conduct during the said six-day memorial period a thorough inspection of both the bituminous and anthracite coal mines being worked in Pennsylvania to ensure that the laws of this Commonwealth with respect to safety conditions therein are being observed, and that all such mines are in condition which precludes the possibility of accidents and disaster; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of Mines.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which require resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Is there objection?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I object to immediate consideration of the resolution just offered and I want to state, Mr. President, my reasons for objecting to it.

I call attention of the Senate to the fact, while I think there is the utmost sympathy for the situation which caused this resolution to be introduced, the resolution does direct specifically that the Department of Mines make in the course of six days a thorough inspection of every bituminous and anthracite coal mine in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I submit, Mr. President, that would be a difficult if not impossible thing to accomplish within the course of six days.

In addition to that, Mr. President, the resolution calls for directing the Department of Mines to make such an examination to preclude the possibility of accidents and disaster and I take it, Mr. President, that there is no human being who could possibly inspect so as to preclude beyond all possibility the occurrence of some disaster or accident, because of the inherently hazardous nature of the work itself.

The PRESIDENT. There being objection, the resolution is referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY ALL LAWS DEALING WITH AND RELAT- ING TO CORPORATIONS AND COOPERATIVES

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, April 1, 1947.

Whereas, There is an urgent need to investigate and study the existing laws relating to corporations and co-operatives, and a great public service would be performed if these laws were modernized and codified; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed and authorized to review, investigate, study and consider all of the laws dealing with and relating to corporations and cooperatives and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with proposed legislation embodying a codification of such laws of the Commonwealth to be introduced at the next regular session of the General Assembly.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

Which was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. BARR. Mr. President I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of information.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, is this a concurrent resolution? I think it has to be.

The PRESIDENT. It is not.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President in answer to the suggestion of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, may I say it does not have to be a joint resolution to direct the Joint State Government Commission to make an investigation.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the affirmative.)

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. WAGNER and HARE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 468, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section one, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; eliminating the requirement of uniformity in the case of income taxes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, in reporting from the Committee on Local Government House Bill 313, I desire to make the following statement:

This bill is known as the Philadelphia Parking Lot and Garage bill.

In reporting this bill to the floor of the Senate, permit me to say that at the suggestion of the chairman, the committee unanimously voted to place further consideration of this bill in the hands of the entire Senate body; the committee directed me to state that at no time was there any intention to defeat this proposed piece of legislation; no crusading in its behalf was needed at any time. The committee refused to be stampeded into any unconsidered action and full consideration has been given to the provisions of this bill.

This morning the Committee on Local Government met for the first time with Councilman Schwartz and City Solicitor Schwartz of Philadelphia, at which time the purposes of this bill were fully stated and several suggested amendments were adopted to clarify the bill.

The committee feels that it has fulfilled its duty in pointing out the implications in this bill. Additional implementing powers were suggested to the city officials, who honestly resisted them. We have acceded to their wishes and this bill, if it passes in its present form, is now their responsibility.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. STEVENSON, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 175, entitled:

An Act to further amend section six hundred twenty-two of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. #### CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS UNANIMOUS CONSENT UNDER RULE 38

A motion was made by Mr. KEPHART and Mr. GELTZ, to grant unanimous consent to immediate consideration of the nominations reported from the Committee on Executive Nominations, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at today's session.

Which was agreed to.

The nominations were read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 31, 1947.

To the Honorable, The Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

MEMBERS OF THE STATE ATHLETIC COMMISSION

Leon L. Raines, 912 Finance Building, Philadelphia, Philadelphia County, for the term of two years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. (Reappointment)

MEMBERS OF THE PIKE COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

Mrs. Jennie Carlton (Republican), Greentown, to serve until December 31, 1949, and until her successor is duly appointed and qualified, vice Mrs. Nina Hopps, Greentown, whose term expired.

Richard Wohlberg (Republican), R. D., Milford, to serve until December 31, 1949, and until his successor is duly appointed and qualified, vice Leland Ryder, Matamoras, whose term expired.

JAMES H. DUFF.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. KEPHART and Mr. GELTZ, That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate. The appointment of the Honorable Leon Rains pleases me to no end. It is true that we have had differences of opinions concerning policy and the administration of the Boxing Commission, but the fact remains they were honest differences that have led to progress and improvement in the boxing game.

At its best, the position of a commissioner is a difficult one. We can not appreciate the trying circumstances under which they operate. You have the boxer, the manager, the promoter, the seconds and the public to put up with, and last but not least, the gambler and racketeer who strives to exploit the boxing game for their own aggrandizement.

The commission has to be on their toes at all times in an endeavor to keep boxing on a high plane. And I daresay that the Boxing Commission under the leadership of Leon Rains has done an excellent job, especially at a time when the atmosphere was poised by shocking revelation of attempted bribery and bribery in both amateur and professional sports. Have you heard of one instance of fixing in Pennsylvania? The answer is no.

The commission has shown a tendency to cooperate, and when any wrong is pointed out to them, they quickly have demonstrated their willingness to repair it.

I can safely say that if the commission needs any help to purge the game of any undesirable elements that might still be associated with it, the Legislature and the Governor will not hesitate to assist them. The commission is all out for clean sports and so are we.

I say to the commission, keep up your good work.

I now ask my colleagues to vote for the confirmation of Leon Rains.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 263, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two, and amend sections three and five of the act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1303), entitled "An act to regulate the sale of certain hypnotic, analgesic, and body-weight reduction drugs, in the interest of public health," extending requirements as to contents of labels; conditions under which barbiturate drugs may be sold or handled and increasing penalties for violations thereof.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, before Senate Bill 263 is read and agreed to, I would like to state that I have no objection to the purpose of the bill. I have discussed it with the sponsor and I am in favor of doing everything possible to further curb the dangers of a very dangerous drug.

I think, however, that the bill is in improper form and I would ask the members of the Senate to turn to the bill, and especially page 4, line 6, where it states: "... the possession by other than persons who obtain barbiturates on the prescription of or dispensing by a duly licensed practitioner . . ." And then skipping down to lines 11 and 12, "... shall constitute a violation." The possession by one other than the one who had the prescription shall be a violation. And then going back to line 8 "... provided such barbiturates are in the pharmacist's original or renewed prescription container . . ." One of my colleagues says that is right. I do not think it is right, Mr. President and members of the Senate, and that is why I am serving notice before we take a vote that we are saying that possession by one other than the one who obtained the prescription is a violation, provided that the drug is in the original package and I ask the question how about it if it is not in the original package and possessed by one other than the prescription holder. That certainly also is a violation, and it is the big violation, that is the cause of violations we are after under this bill.

Mr. President, I think the purpose of the bill is good, I want to vote for it, but I can not vote for it in its present form and therefore I would suggest that the bill go over in order to permit further study of it.

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, I have no objection whatever to the bill going over in order. I discussed this matter very completely this morning with representatives of the Health Department, which is sponsoring this bill, and they told me the language used is the exact language used in the uniform drug act and that it is contained in a New York statute in exactly these words.

The argument of the Senator from Northampton appeals to me very much. I do not think there is any particular reason why we should rush the bill through and therefore I would consent to the bill going over in its order for further study.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. Speaker, on today's Second Reading calendar there are five bills, House Bill No. 7 on page 1, House Bill No. 505 on page 9, House Bill No. 508 on page 10, House Bill No. 531 on page 10 and House Bill No. 538 on page 11. It is my understanding that these bills are companion measures commonly known as "a package," and as the gentleman from Cambria so aptly puts it, it is not desired that the string should be cut.

It is my understanding that it is the desire of the sponsors of these measures that these five bills move as a unit, but it occurs to me that several of the measures involve subjects which are dealt with in proposed legislation by other sponsors for other sections of the State, and to cover the State generally. Because there is an overlapping of the provisions of these particular measures

I feel it desirable that we have several days to reconcile these various provisions, and for that reason it is my earnest request that the sponsors of the bills mentioned refrain from calling them up today or tomorrow.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill Mr. Watkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATKINS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does this bill limit or define the type of physical or dental defects required to be given attention?

Mr. WATKINS. The bill states mental or physical care, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. No limitation whatever upon the type of defect?

Mr. WATKINS. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Then the parents or guardians of a child with a small tooth cavity and with perhaps a small scratch on the face of their children would be fined one hundred dollars and imprisoned three months, the same as a child with a contagious or communicable disease?

Mr. WATKINS. No, Mr. Speaker, not exactly. It doesn't determine a thing like that.

Mr. TOMPKINS. The bill doesn't state that, however, Mr. Speaker. This bill does not define or limit that according to the gentleman's statement, does it?

Mr. WATKINS. I don't think it is necessary under the conditions to define a limit, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Well, should a dentist repair a small cavity in the tooth and it is not taken care of in three months—

Mr. WATKINS. They are supposed to report that back to the school authorities.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Suppose they give no attention to it at all?

Mr. WATKINS. That's what we are trying to do, to correct that and see that proper correction is made.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Does the gentleman mean then that if no attention is given to a matter of that kind in three months that you put the parents in jail for three months?

Mr. WATKINS. As far as that is concerned it is up to the judge; somebody has to report back and state whether the condition has been corrected or not, and if it is not corrected the parents are liable—or the guardian.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Does this bill exempt those who have religious scruples against medical or dental treatment?

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, I think those people who have religious scruples against any kind of medical treatment, that the authorities would look into that matter and see that it is corrected.

Mr. TOMPKINS. The bill does not, however, exempt that, does it?

Mr. WATKINS. I wouldn't say it does.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I thank the gentleman from Schuylkill.

Mr. Speaker, I am just as much interested as any Member of this House in the health and welfare of children, but when it comes to a point where we are trying to impose compulsory medical attention upon parents and make it punishable by fine or imprisonment, where they do not define or limit the nature of the treatment to be given and that it can be required for the most minor defect to meet that condition, I think it is going a little too far upon the health and welfare of our community. For that reason I ask the Members of this House to vote against this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 753, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph five of section thirteen and section fourteen of the act approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1043), entitled "An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," by increasing the minimum amount to be paid to said persons on retirement.

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. MADDEN offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 14), page 6, line 6, by striking out the words "divided into" and inserting in lieu thereof "multiplied by."

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third and fourth sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill have been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 771, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven (P. L. 21), entitled "An act for the establishment of a uniform standard of time throughout the Commonwealth," making further provision for such standard of time.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WORLEY offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 19, by inserting after the word "adopt," "or recommend."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 1), page 4, line 3, by inserting after the word "effect":

"Any member of the corporate authority of any city, borough, town, township or other municipal subdivision voting for any such ordinance, resolution or rule shall upon summary conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500)."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill together with the amendment be recommitted to the Committee on State Government for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members of this House to vote down the motion to recommit. A vote for the motion to recommit means a vote against standard time for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. To vote to recommit means a vote for daylight savings time, so I ask the Members to vote against this motion in order to have uniform standard time.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I wish to be in accord with Mr. Worley on this vote.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, since the issue has been raised we might as well have a roll call or a division. Now, we have a vital issue, the big city delegation has ganged up on my friends from the rural districts. The big city delegation has ganged up on my friend, the gentleman from Wayne; in fact the big city delegation has ganged up on all the Members of this House from the sticks.

I presume that the big city delegations are in complete control of the machinery of this House, and I presume that the gentleman from Adams when he winds up will find his poor little wee lamb of a bill mangled and ruined, but it won't be mangled and ruined by these rough riding Philadelphians if there is anything we can do to rally to his support.

Seriously I want myself to take a position against clock changing. I don't care if the merchants' association in a particular town want to open their doors at eight o'clock—let them go to it, but this epidemic of clock changing—lazy people that cannot get out of bed an hour earlier in the morning unless they change a watch or a clock, that's the issue we have at this time, and it is time the rural districts raised the banner of revolt and told these rough riders from the big city delegations where to halt.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I understood the Chair recognized the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, who presented amendments to the desk, is that correct?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. BROWN. Before the amendments were passed upon a motion to recommit the bill and the amendments was made. Could that motion be entertained, at least I mean before the Chair puts the question as to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman that the motion to recommit precludes the motion to amend.

Mr. BROWN. Precludes, or includes? We don't want to get mixed up here in our language. I am from a rural section, and I am not so sure that I understand your ruling.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would direct the attention of the gentleman to rule 54:

"A motion for postponement shall preclude commitment. A motion for commitment shall preclude amendment or decision on the original subject."

Mr. BROWN. I thank you, Mr. Speaker. The reason I arose to put the parliamentary inquiry was that before voting on the motion to recommit I wanted to find out from the amendment who would be put in jail so that I would know how to vote. The Clerk read the amendments so hastily that I didn't catch who goes to jail under this bill.

May I ask if the motion to recommit is in order—I understand I am not privileged to ask any questions concerning the amendments, but will the gentleman from Philadelphia yield for a moment on his motion so that I may find out who is going to be put in jail, as a member of a body who may have somebody changing their clock and as a possible prospect for the jail house I would like to know.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia be willing to withdraw his motion?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia withdraws his motion temporarily.

Does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, wish to have the amendment read again for the information of the House?

Mr. BROWN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, that is exactly what I want.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment slowly this time.

The amendment was read by the Clerk.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BROWN. May I interrogate the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley? I was his counsel until this time.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Adams permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WORLEY. I will, Mr. Speaker, and I will answer his first question, there is no jail provision. Only a fine.

Mr. BROWN. I would like to ask if a member of a corporate body would be a member of a school board of Pennsylvania? Would a corporate body as designated in this bill take in school districts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Mr. WORLEY. The corporate authority would take in the school districts. They are municipal subdivisions.

Mr. BROWN. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker. I would earnestly ask that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, promptly renew his motion.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I will be only too glad to accommodate the gentleman from Allegheny. Mr. Speaker, I was also surprised to see our friend on the other side from Cambria County protesting this bill. I was of the opinion that the gentleman had been a strong home rule advocate up to this time. Today the way the bill is written it is definitely not a home rule bill. We can do as we please and various districts can do as they please.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill together with the amendments be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Wayne will state it.

Mr. DIX. Is it proper at this time, Mr. Speaker, to discuss this bill or just the amendment introduced by Mr. Worley?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman from Wayne that the motion to recommit the bill, together with the amendments, has been renewed. The gentleman must confine his remarks to the motion to recommit.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, is it proper to explain the bill?

The SPEAKER. Not on a motion to recommit.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Adams permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WORLEY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DIX. I understand, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, is opposed to having this bill recommitted?

Mr. WORLEY. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, is it possible for the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, to explain what this bill does.

Mr. WORLEY. If the Speaker will permit me, I will explain it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is confined to the question on the motion to recommit. That is the only question before the House.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I doubt if ten percent of the Members of the House know what this bill is for. They have the impression that this bill will prevent daylight saving time. It does nothing of the kind. All it does is prevent public officials from turning the clock back and changing from standard time.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this seems to be a question between the farmers and the people of the City of Philadelphia. I would like to answer the objection of Mr. Brown in regard to the school districts. Our school districts do not adopt this in and alone of themselves.

I do not recall what the objection of Mr. Smith was on his last statement. He made certain statements, but if he will tell me, I will answer his objection.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I made a motion to recommit. That is all I have done, as I recall now.

Mr. WORLEY. I recall now, and if I recall it correctly, one of his objections was that it was against home rule.

Now, in opposing this motion to recommit, I want to say that the municipal subdivisions are agents of the Commonwealth. They are first created by the Commonwealth. Those things that are local in nature are the subject of home rule. Those things that are state-wide in nature are the subject for regulation by the State government and this is one of them.

I want to tell the Philadelphia Delegation that this has caused a great deal of confusion in this Commonwealth, to the farmers and the rural people. Twenty-four states have already, including the District of Columbia, made provision for a uniform standard of time, Maryland being one of them.

So I ask the Members of this House to vote against the motion to recommit.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the predicament of my friend from Adams, Mr. Worley, reminds me of that story of the colored fellow who was in court, and who had three lawyers and they were not doing so well. Finally he got up and asked the court if he could have leave to address the court, and the court granted the leave. He said, "All I wanted to say, Judge, is that I would like to know if I can swap a couple of lawyers for a couple of witnesses?"

Without divulging any of the inhibitions against counsel revealing the confidential relations that exist between counsel and client, I would like to ask permission to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BROWN. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, from the statement which the gentleman made on the floor in reference to the motion to recommit, I haven't much doubt in my own mind that the gentleman does not believe in the amendment, but I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, if that is the reason for his desire to recommit.

Mr. BROWN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I had as I stated before acted as counsel for my friend, Mr. Worley, and the gentleman doesn't know without disclosing a secret that should be kept in committee, and pleaded as best I could his cause but I had no idea of the amendments that were going to put me in jail or make me pay a fine.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, from the reference to school boards and from some knowledge that I have that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, has some connection with the school board, I would like to inquire if it is the fear of a fine against the members of the school board that prompted the gentleman's feeling as to these amendments.

Mr. BROWN. Absolutely.

Mr. TURNER. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Unless, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware will pay my fine in case I get into that predicament.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand there is no jail sentence carried with it. If there was I would be heartily in favor of it if I thought the gentleman from Allegheny would be jailed, but as it only involves a fine I am sure that it would not hurt his pocketbook.

I understand that it is a bad idea to swap horses in the middle of a stream, and it is always bad to swap lawyers in the middle of a case, but there has been some advice given to the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley, that he withdraw these amendments. I would like therefore to interrogate the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Adams permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WORLEY. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, is there any purpose in these amendments other than the one in reference to a fine?

Mr. WORLEY. No other purpose, Mr. Speaker, except a fine. There is no jail sentence whatsoever. There is one word added that they shall not "recommend" as well as "adopt". There are a lot of districts getting around it by passing resolutions "recommending" or "adopting." So we added the word "recommend".

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Adams be willing to withdraw his amendment?

Mr. WORLEY. I would not, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman needs another lawyer.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, now we are voting to recommit the bill as it appears on the second reading calendar but we are not recommitting in any way the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The motion, as the Chair understands it, is to recommit the bill, together with the amendments, to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, how can you recommit the amendments if the amendments have not been adopted?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman that that is the very purpose for recommitting the bill so that the amendments can be studied, together with the bill, after it is returned to the Committee on State Government.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would ask the speaker to specifically rule as to whether or not the motion to recommit does not apply solely to the bill as it appears on the calendar and does not affect the amendments that the House has not adopted, because if the House has not adopted the amendments they do not appear in the record as any thing that can be referred to committee.

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Cambria, the Chair would state again, referring to Rule 15:

"No business regularly before the House shall be interrupted except by motion—

For adjournment

To lay on the table

For the previous question, namely, 'shall the main question be now put?'

For postponement

For commitment

For amendment — — "

Therefore the motion to recommit takes precedence over the question on the amendment. The only thing that can be done with the amendments is to allow them to be recommitted with the bill, if the House decides to recommit the bill. The Chair might say that the motion to recommit facilitates the motion to amend.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, since we went so far afield, I wonder if it would be possible for me to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BROWN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to say that the reason why he is opposed to these amendments is due to the fact that he feels that he would be held responsible by reason of the fact that he is a member of the school board?

Mr. BROWN. That is quite possible, Mr. Speaker. The answer is yes.

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, who is a very able constitutional lawyer, whether or not the fact that he is appointed as a member of the school board and not elected, would make some difference in whether or not he would be made responsible under these amendments?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not talking upon the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman that great latitude has been allowed in this debate. The Chair will again read from Rule 15:

“The motion for commitment is open to debate only as to the reasons for or against reference to Committee and shall not include a discussion of the merits of the main question”

The Chair would remind the gentleman from Westmoreland that the question is open for debate only as to the reasons for referring to committee. Debate may not include a discussion of the merits of the main question.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I feel that I am within my constitutional rights, and that I am talking about the amendments and the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will again remind the gentleman that the question is on the motion to recommit.

Mr. LOVETT. May I say to the gentleman that I stated in the beginning we have gone far afield, and nobody has been interrupted up until this stage.

I have only one question, and I would ask my good friend, if he would bear with me for just this one question.

Mr. Brown, I stated my question. Did you get it?

Mr. BROWN. I did not get the question because you stated it while the Chair was recognizing the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Sproul. Would you be kind enough to restate your question?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I asked the gentleman, due to the fact that he is an appointed member of the school board and not an elected member of the school board, whether or not the fact that he is an appointed member and not an elected member may in some way relieve his responsibility under this amendment.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the answer to that would be no, because I perhaps would be more severely dealt with because I am appointed, because the Judge might say I should have known the law,

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the ruling of the Chair, it is that a motion can be made to recommit the bill together with the amendments which were offered?

The SPEAKER. The Chair ruled that the entire question was to be re-referred to committee.

Mr. TURNER. As there seem to be two questions involved here, first, the question to recommit the bill, and second, the question arising by reason of the submission of the amendments, can the question be divided by a motion to divide the question?

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that we cannot separate the two questions; they must travel together under the motion to recommit. The amendments would certainly mean nothing without the main question.

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill together with the amendments be laid on the table.

On the question, Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, but I will have to object to the motion made by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, and I would like to make an objection to his motion. There was a motion made that the bill be recommitted with the amendments and I would like to have a vote on that motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would remind the gentleman that this motion is not debatable.

On the question recurring, Will the House agree to the motion to lay on the table? It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring, Will the House agree to the motion to recommit?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Page 3, line 9, after the word "forty-four" strike out "forty eight (48)" and insert "forty (40)".

Page 5, line 8, after the word "day" strike out the balance of the paragraph and insert "Provided that, should the Secretary of Labor and Industry, with the approval of the Industrial Board, permit females to work up to but not more than forty-eight (48) hours in any one week, then time and one-half shall be paid for all hours over forty (40) a week."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose these amendments. No one would be more in favor of these amendments than I am, if it covered all workers and was a standard law. Surely, we do not want to put an amendment into this bill that is going to discriminate against a part of our labor force. Surely we want to have a law that is fair to all workers and under which all workers have an equal opportunity to compete for jobs. This amendment is unnecessary because under the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act all industry engaged in interstate commerce must pay time and a half to all workers regardless of whether they are male or female for hours after forty.

Pennsylvania has a million two hundred thousand working women and five hundred thousand of these women are covered by the Federal Law. Under the Railways Labor Act, every collective bargaining unit has an overtime provision for a large number of women. We also can have an orderly procedure to cover this, already provided for by the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Law.

So, Mr. Speaker, on those grounds I oppose this amendment and I ask the Members of this House to vote against it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Mercer permit herself to be interrogated?

Mrs. DYE. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye, admit that this amendment applies to people who are not working in inter-state commerce and that we have many people, many women working in Pennsylvania who are not covered by the Federal Act.

Mrs. DYE. That is so, Mr. Speaker, but we have a minimum wage law in Pennsylvania to take care of that.

Mr. LOVETT. I think the lady from Mercer.

Mr. Speaker I feel that the amendment that I offered is fair and just and will protect the women in Pennsylvania. They will not be protected under the bill of Mrs. Dye, House Bill 35.

I, therefore, ask that we have a roll call and that the roll be called slowly and that only those answering to their names be recorded, as this is a very important piece of legislation.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Lovett and Mr. Petrosky.

Messrs. Chervenak, Evans and Petrosky asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, we have tried our level best to make at least a half decent bill out of a bad bill. This bill House Bill 35, that we are now going to vote upon, is an act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment.

Let me read for you a statement made by Local Union 610 of the United Radio and Electrical Machine Workers of America:

"In six years of negotiations with these companies we have never been able to more than reduce the size of the differential between wage rates for men and women. The differential in the base rates for piece work runs between twenty cents and thirty-five cents on jobs classified as male and female workers. Our members are very much concerned with the rate differential or provisions effective for a mass transfer of male and female rates to women rates during the economic depression. These fears are agitated highly by the efforts of companies to transfer jobs or classify new jobs on female rates."

Now, if you are asking for bigger and better strikes, this is the bill to pass to get them. You are going to stir up all this turmoil in industry regarding rates of pay between men and women and the fact that women are being placed on men's jobs. If there ever was a bill that was not in the interests of women, this bill is it. If you men here are interested in women workers and the good of women and the good of our womanhood, then you certainly should vote to defeat this bill. This bill, House Bill No. 35, will cause bigger and better strikes. I say to the men of this House that it is now about time that we call a halt and say to the manufacturers of Pennsylvania, "Let us quit making sweat shops for the women of Pennsylvania." Professional women are not included in this bill. These are the women who work in industry.

May I say further, Mr. Speaker, that under this bill the Labor Board now must hold a meeting before they may decide whether or not the occupation is fit for women to work in. Prior to this time the Board had a right to make its decision without such a meeting.

So, my friends, I say to you that we certainly should defeat this piece of legislation and get interested in some legislation in the interests of the women of Pennsylvania. I ask that you defeat this bill.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, just what does the gentleman from Westmoreland consider a sweat shop for women? What does he consider constitutes a sweat shop condition for women?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I consider sweat shop conditions for women when you allow them to be placed in occupations where the Board must first hold a meeting to decide whether or not that occupation is fit for women to work in. Furthermore that the women accept these jobs under a smaller wage pay than men.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, that will be all. The reason I introduced this bill was for the purpose of giving women equal job opportunities. In Pennsylvania we have one million two hundred thousand women, constituting a very substantial part of our labor force. The present law definitely discriminates against equal job opportunities which they would have under my bill, equal job opportunities. I think about sweat shop conditions as being places that are unsanitary, low rates of pay and long hours.

There are only fourteen states that have a forty-eight hour week for women, and the others have more. Some of them have no ceiling on hours at all. The southern states, for example, have as high as sixty hours for women, and other states have no ceiling. I consider those to be sweat shop conditions and not a forty-eight hour week.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will be very brief. The lady from Mercer is too young to remember the battle over the years that the men and women of Pennsylvania made to protect women and children in industry. I can remember when American women worked in the field. It was a proud day in the western states when we could say that none of our women worked in the field.

There are those who in the name of equal job opportunities would have women work in the mines, in foundries and various occupations for women, that they are not fitted for. Working around the clock for girls of 18 in the name of equal job opportunities is a new development.

Now, Mr. Speaker, women are not men and they never will be. They cannot do the kind of work that men can do. This is modern movement to wipe out all restrictions in the name of equal rights or equal job opportunities to put women into all kinds of occupations around the clock in industry that are notoriously not policed and in jobs that are conspicuously underpaid as compared with the work that men do. This is the beginning of a vicious crusade and is a movement, whether the lady from Mercer knows it or not, inaugurated by certain concerns in the textile business where there are no strong unions and where collective bargaining does not prevail. The lady's bill is perfectly all right wherever there is a strong bargaining union. The lady's bill is poisonous in any industry and in any town where there is not a strong bargaining unit.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, speaking about my age, I wonder if the gentleman had been influenced by my recent attack of the mumps. In Pennsylvania under the present Women's Law females may be employed all night within the daily and weekly hour limitation, except in manufacturing establishments. Women may be employed all night at cooking, serving meals in restaurants, sweeping and scrubbing, serving beer and liquor in tap rooms during legal hours, but despite the constantly improving working conditions in manufacturing establishments women may not be employed in manufacturing establishments at night. I think it is rather ridiculous that they can be employed in all those places and they cannot be employed in manufacturing establishments, where they certainly have better working conditions and are under good supervision for the most part.

As for the 18 year olds, may I say this, every year there are groups of high school students who cannot afford to go to institutions of higher learning and from economic necessity must go to work to earn a living for themselves, and in many instances to contribute to the support of their family. These groups between the years of 18 and 21 have few employment opportunities in an industrial plant—take a town like Erie for example.

Another point I would like to bring out, is that young women are not forbidden to go to places of amusement during the hours when they are forbidden to work. I may be old fashioned but I do not think there is any greater moral hazard working in a manufacturing establishment under proper supervision than there is running around in some of these places that we have that we call places of amusement in Pennsylvania. I think they are better off if they are comfortably and constructively employed.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I think in this day when we have so many people walking the streets unemployed, both men and women, it would be very unfair to those people walking the streets to increase the hours of work from 44 to 48 in any industry. I think we should go back to the time before the war and set the hours back to forty and give everybody an opportunity to earn a living. I think on that ground this bill should be defeated and we should go back to the standard forty-hour week in any industry and in some instances or some industries less than that. Instead of increasing the hours from eight to ten, I think we should go back to a seven hour day or a six hour day and give everybody an equal opportunity to make a living.

I think on those two grounds alone this bill should be defeated.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, this is the first time that I have risen to address the Members of the House, and the reason I am rising is because I think we are now discussing a very critical bill.

I have heard the argument for both sides but one thought persists with me. We have in our state at this time some very favorable labor legislation affecting women which was placed on our statute books after years of earnest effort by sincere men and women. If our labor laws affecting the women are better than other States, we should be proud of that fact and not lower our standards to those of other States which are backward in those respects.

Mr. Speaker, I sincerely hope the House will reject this bill. I feel that if we pass it it will come back some day to haunt us.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Chudoff, Evans and Scanlon asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

L. 1012) is hereby further amended to read as follows building by fire or other causes the school district shall be liable for the salaries of the teachers of said school or schools for the terms for which they were engaged. Whenever a teacher is prevented from following his or her occupation as a teacher during any period of the school term for any of the reasons in this section specified the school district shall be liable for the salary of such teacher for such period at the rate of compensation stipulated in the contract between the district and the teacher in addition to the time actually occupied in teaching by such teacher.

[Whenever a teacher is prevented by sickness or some other unavoidable circumstances from following his or her occupation the school district may at the discretion of the directions make such payments of compensation during the period of absence from duty as the exigencies of the case may seem to warrant. Provided That in the case of sickness no payments shall be made unless such teacher shall have furnished to the board of school directors a certificate from a physician stating the nature of the sickness and certifying that he or she was unable to perform duties as a teacher.]

In any school year whenever a professional employe is prevented by illness from following his or her occupation the school district shall pay to said professional employe the full salary to which the professional employe may be entitled as if said employe were actually engaged in the performance of duty for a period of five days. Provided however that such leave shall be cumulative from year to year but shall not exceed twenty (20) days' leave with full pay in any one year. Provided further that the board of school directors shall require the professional employe to furnish a certificate from a physician certifying that said professional employe was unable to perform his or her duties during the period of absence for which compensation is required to be paid under this section.

The board of school directors may extend the period of absence with pay in its discretion as the exigencies of the case may warrant. A near relative shall be defined as first cousin grandfather grandmother aunt uncle niece nephew brother-in-law or sister-in-law.

All compensation required to be paid under the provisions of this act shall be paid to the professional employe in the same manner and at the same time said employe would have received his salary if actually engaged in the performance of his duties.

Any board of school directors (or any board of public education) may adopt rules or regulations pertaining to the payment of salaries of professional employees when absent from duty extending the period of leave with pay in excess of that herein provided or authorizing leaves with pay for other purposes. This act is not intended to repeal any rule or regulation of any board of school directors now in effect which does provide for such additional compensation or additional period of leave with pay.

[All contracts with teachers shall hereafter contain a covenant providing for their payment in cases arising under the circumstances described in this section and at the same rate as is specified for the time actually engaged in teaching.]

Payments of salaries heretofore or hereafter made for the school year ending June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and nineteen or any portion thereof in conformity with the provisions of this act are hereby declared to be valid and effectual in law and binding upon the school district.]

Section 2 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act. The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 389, as follows:

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 668 No. 261) entitled "An act to restrain and regulate the use of billiard-tables pool-tables and bagatelle-boards or tables kept and maintained for the use of the general public for hire or reward in cities of the first class in this Commonwealth providing for the granting of licenses and providing for punishments for the violations of the provisions of this act" by requiring applicant for license to have been a resident of the city in which he desires a license for a period of two years immediately preceding the filing of his petition for a license

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section two of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 668 No. 261) entitled "An act to restrain and regulate the use of billiard-tables pool-tables and bagatelle-boards or tables kept and maintained for the use of the general public for hire or reward in cities of the first class in this Commonwealth providing for the granting of licenses and providing for punishments for the violations of the provisions of this act" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 Licenses to keep or maintain any house room or place for the public use of billiard-tables or bagatelle-boards or tables shall be granted only to citizens of the United States of temperate habits and good moral character who have resided within the city in which they desire a license for a period of at least two years immediately preceding the filing of their petitions for licenses

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Henry.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HENRY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the gentleman from Philadelphia why since this law has been on the statute books of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since 1911, it suddenly becomes necessary to be a resident of the City of Philadelphia for two years in order to be eligible for a pool-room license.

Mr. HENRY. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, we in the city of Philadelphia are now being troubled with people moving into the city from other states, particularly New York, and immediately establishing pool-rooms, without even having been a resident of Philadelphia.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, as I read this bill, the present law provides that a pool-room licensee shall be a citizen of the United States, of temperate habits and of good moral character. I should like to know from the gentleman whether a person becomes of good moral character if he lives in Philadelphia for two years.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I would say, Mr. Speaker, that merely living there makes you that kind of a gentleman.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, what difficulty has the gentleman had with people who have applied for pool-room licenses who have not resided in Philadelphia for two years.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I don't believe any difficulty, Mr. Speaker. The bill was originally written to prevent people from moving in and immediately opening an establishment in opposition to residents of the city. I believe that is all that this bill does.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I listened very carefully to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith as to his reasons for the passage of this bill. I cannot see any reason whatsoever why it becomes necessary for a person to live in Philadelphia two years in order to run a pool-room. It seems to me that the present license law set-up for Philadelphia is a good one; they have had proper experience with the pool-rooms in Philadelphia, and I feel this bill is rather unnecessary and I for one will vote against it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, some Members of the House may confuse this bill with one that is in committee at the present time. This bill does not raise the cost of any fishing license on any resident in Pennsylvania. What it does is this, it raises the cost of a license from one dollar and fifty cents to two dollars for non-resident tourist licenses and gives them five days instead of three days.

The reason I introduced this bill is that upon examination of the States surrounding Pennsylvania, I found that we were in an unfavorable position with respect to tourists. I discovered that in the adjoining state of New York there is a three day license at a cost of two dollars and seventy-five cents. In New Jersey there are no tourist licenses. In the state of Delaware they have a six day license at a cost of one dollar. In Maryland you can get a three days fishing license at a cost of one dollar and seventy-five cents. In West Virginia you are charged one dollar per day for fishing and you can take out as many licenses as you want. In Ohio, the state adjoining us to the West you get ten days of fishing for one dollar. The average cost of tourist fishing license is one dollar and fifty cents for all the states surrounding us, and the average number of days is five and one half days of fishing.

I submit that this bill encourages the tourists to come into Pennsylvania and satisfies those who do come in.

I might say that I come from one of the great recreational centers in the northeastern part of Pennsylvania, and I have found that the tourists will come into Pennsylvania and spend only three days visiting. The first day they come, they cannot obtain a license. On the second day, they may do a little fishing, and the third day they have to go home. Therefore when they buy a license they are very much dissatisfied. I would like to have the members of this House support this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Chervenak,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 715, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 599) entitled "An act relating to motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto on Sunday prohibiting motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions and orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection incidental thereto on Sunday during certain hours and also during hours unless the electors of a municipality approve thereof regulating the employment of persons in conducting such exhibitions on Sunday providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws" by exempting the exhibition of religious motion pictures by churches from the provisions of this act

Whereas It was never the intention of the legislature to prohibit the exhibition of religious motion pictures by churches under the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment therefore

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 599) entitled "An act relating to motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions together with orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection in connection with or incidental thereto on Sunday prohibiting motion picture exhibitions and sound motion picture exhibitions and orchestral or other instrumental musical or mechanical musical accompaniment prelude playing or selection incidental thereto on Sunday during certain hours and also during other hours unless the electors of a municipality approve thereof regulating the employment of persons in conducting such exhibitions on Sunday providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws" is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to follow immediately after section six to read as follows

Section 6.1 Non-applicability of Act The provisions of this act in no way prohibit the exhibition of religious motion pictures by churches at any time

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Mr. BRICE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1947.

Fred L. Rentz, President of the New Castle News, passed away on May 13, 1946, after nearly sixty-four years in the newspaper business.

Mr. Rentz was born in New Castle, March 12, 1868, in humble circumstances. In 1882 he began his newspaper career as a printer's devil from which he rose through the ranks to become President and part owner of the New Castle News.

He did not have the opportunity of securing much formal education in his youth, but that he succeeded in educating himself is borne out by the fact that some years before his death, he was honored by Westminster College with the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

Although he believed sincerely in the American method of government, except for completing a short unexpired term as Mayor of New Castle in 1923 at the insistence of his fellow citizens, he did not desire public office. In 1938 his fellow townsmen further honored him by awarding him their "Distinguished Citizens' Award."

Mr. Rentz conducted the New Castle News as he lived his own life, fearless of criticism when he felt he was in the right, kindly to those who needed help and guidance.

He was a Pennsylvanian who knew and loved his community and State with a devotion that was life long; therefore, be it

Resolved, By this House of Representatives, that with the death of Fred L. Rentz there has passed a man who served his fellow men, community, and State with distinction; and be further

Resolved, That in evidence of the deep sympathy of this House, the Chief Clerk thereof shall transmit copies of this resolution to the family of Fred L. Rentz and to the City Council of New Castle.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. PROPERT asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the names of Messrs. Boorse and Brunner to a resolution.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Messrs. PROPERT, CADWALADER, BOORSE and BRUNNER offered a resolution, which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1947.

The Members of this House of Representatives are saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Ilen Kratz, the mother of our colleague, the Honorable Raymond C. Kratz, from Montgomery County. Mrs. Kratz passed away at Fort Washington, Montgomery County, at the age of eighty-four; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives extend to the Honorable Raymond C. Kratz their heart-felt sympathy in his bereavement at the loss of his beloved mother; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Honorable Raymond C. Kratz.

RESOLUTION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following resolution, and after the Chair has read it, I desire to make a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, offers a resolution which is not a privileged resolution. Does the Chair understand the gentleman wants the resolution read for the information of the House?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. No, Mr. Speaker, I want to make a parliamentary inquiry after the Chair has read the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman please state his parliamentary inquiry?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the resolution is a borderline resolution. There is a possibility that since it instructs a committee for immediate action, it might be subject to immediate action upon the part of the House, or the Chair might rule that it should lie over for printing, or the Chair might rule that it should be referred to the Rules Committee. I think that the Chair's decision would properly rest between lying over for printing or immediate action, since it advises a committee of this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would rule that the resolution does not come within the definition of a privileged resolution, and therefore, should lie over for printing, unless the gentleman desires to ask unanimous consent for immediate consideration.

Mr. ANDREWS. If it lies over for printing, it is quite all right with me.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. O'NEILL asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the names of Messrs. Cordier and Kohl as additional sponsors to a resolution he was about to introduce.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House this afternoon a former Member from Blair County, Hon. Charles A. Auker.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. ANDREWS.

RESOLUTION No. 33.

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1947.

Whereas, Major mine accidents are preventable if the safety regulations concerning the mining of coal are observed, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House instruct its Mines and Mining Committee to ascertain, through public hearings and through such other methods as it may elect to employ, whether the provisions of Pennsylvania's Mining Code, relating to safety in the mining of coal are being enforced and whether, if being enforced, those present rules and regulations are adequate to protect those who mine coal against major disasters similar to the recent mine disaster at Centralia, Illinois.

Referred to Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. O'NEILL, CORDIER, NAJAKA and KOHL.
RESOLUTION No. 34.

In the House of Representatives, March 31, 1947.

Whereas, The taxpayers of this State and Nation have spent upwards of five million dollars to plan and construct the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Airport soon to be opened; and

Whereas, It is widely known in aviation circles that the excellent planning and development of this air field has made it a very important link in the potential civil and military air transportation pattern of the northeastern part of our country; and

Whereas, Field examiners for the Civil Aeronautics Board recently recommended to the full Board that the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre Airport be completely bypassed by major airlines and that small, untried air service groups be permitted to provide air transportation to and from the Nation's 19th largest metropolitan area; and

Whereas, The people of northeastern Pennsylvania under the proposed recommendations in addition to the denial of major air line service will be without direct air transportation to such important business and government areas as Harrisburg, our State Capital, Washington, our National Capital, New England, the Midwest, the West, and the South; and

Whereas, The confirmation of the field examiners' recommendations by the Civil Aeronautics Board proper will have a further bad effect on the employment rehabilitation of northeastern Pennsylvania, and will deny to Pennsylvania's outstanding all-weather airport its rightful place in ascending civil air traffic in this country; therefore, be it

Resolved, By this House of Representatives, That the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission immediately investigate all factors surrounding the reasons which prompted field officials of the Civil Aeronautics Board to prejudice such a ranking airport and such a populace district within this Commonwealth through their illogical recommendations; and be it further

Resolved, That the legal staff of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission take immediate steps through intervening proceedings to assist the legal representatives of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties in presenting supplemental briefs before the Civil Aeronautics Board at the proper time.

Referred to Committee on Aeronautics.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to make an important announcement, particularly to the new Members.

Some few weeks ago the Parliamentarian of the House conducted a session for the new Members. After that meeting the Speaker received many fine comments on the way that meeting was conducted and the information which was received by the new Members. In fact many of them have made requests for another meeting of that kind. The Parliamentarian is arranging for a second meeting for new Members to be held in the new House Caucus Room next Thursday morning at 9:45.

The Chair would also like to inform those new Members and, of course, anyone else who might wish to attend, that if you have any one particular parliamentary question that seems to be bothering you, if you will submit that question on a slip of paper and give it to either the gentleman from Carbon, Mr. Scott, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Waldron, or the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Stimmel, before Tuesday morning, they in turn will present them to the Parliamentarian so that he may gather for discussion on Thursday morning just what is troubling most of the Members, and have an idea of your problems.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. SHOEMAKER and WATKINS.

RESOLUTION No. 35.

In the House of Representatives, April 2, 1947.

Whereas, The several dams on the lower Susquehanna River (is) Safe Harbor Dam, Holtwood Dam and the Conowingo Dam, part of which latter dam is located in the State of Maryland and all three of which dams serve to seriously interfere with the natural migration of fish, and

Whereas, No feasible, practical or mechanical device has been placed or installed for the natural migration of fish into the said Susquehanna River and its tributaries during the spawning seasons of said migratory fish, and

Whereas, It is highly fitting and appropriate that legislative recognition be accorded this problem; now therefore be it

Resolved, That in the light of recent experience in other states, the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study the problem of constructing fishways around the Safe Harbor, Holtwood and Conowingo Dams on the lower Susquehanna River to permit fish to ascend the river at spawning time and the utilization of newly developed devices for preventing the loss of fish in the hydraulic power plants on the river, with the objective of restoring both the recreation and the employment, creating possibilities of migratory fish which once flourished in the Susquehanna River and its tributaries. That, if such study reveals that such construction is practicable, suitable action be instituted which will require that the owners of these dams construct these fishways as required in the original permit to construct these dams and in lieu of which the dam owners are now paying a small annual penalty.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we praise Thee for the glory of the Resurrection; its message of hope, and its supremacy of the spiritual. In its holy glow all things vital stand unimpaired, and all essential values unmolested. We pray that we may never lose ourselves in caring for the things we must lay down and leave behind at the gate of death. We rejoice that at this shrine we may realize every dream of our immortal souls; in its light, thank God, there is no defeat and no loss. Let the spirit of the glorified One guide us each day into strong and beneficent living. Sustain and attend this august body, the Senate, as these men wrestle with the weighty problems of state. Move upon the hearts of the citizens of our beloved State that they may always be reasonable and fair in their demands upon these who frame our laws and set our governmental house in order. #### PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, with regard to the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board we have charged maladministration, so I think now we should look at some of the cases to substantiate this charge.

I spoke recently to a person operating a nice highway hotel. He has received since late last year exactly one bottle of Scotch whiskey and two bottles of Bourbon. He cannot get any top grade liquors from his state store, and his so-called quota every week was made up of all the cats and dogs of the distilling industry that have been poured into the system of Pennsylvania's body politic by the inept, incompetent Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

This same person served for about four years in the services of his country during the war. Now he finds the craziest system of special privilege in vogue in the administration of his business by an unsympathetic Liquor Control Board that he or any other citizen could possibly conceive.

Imagine this situation gentleman, when he begged, and I begged, for consideration and after months of silent suffering, one of the clerks in the liquor store suggested he buy some of the better brands at the retail counter. However, if he follows this advice he is not permitted to take this whiskey and sell it in his place of business.

Surely no other business, and it is a business, a highly important business to Pennsylvania, one that brings in over $100,000,000 each biennium in revenue to the treasury of our state, that is so harassed by snoopers, snipers and sneakers.

Can this legislature, because of fear of embarrassing the past G. O. P. Administration, refuse to force an accounting of the stewardship of the state's one and only business venture. Can we face the many worthwhile citizens who are forced by the threat of punitive investigators by this politically strong, but administratively weak Liquor Board, to live in abject fear and in a state of complete subservience to the dictates of local liquor store managers in the type of merchandise they can sell their clients.

This is only one specific case. The Liquor Board itself will admit this practice has caused them to discharge some of their employees.

If there is nothing wrong in the Liquor Board setup, if the consumers, the licensee and the innocent bystander have been treated fair, why does the Republican Party refuse to open the doors of the Liquor Control Board?

Let's get inside and look around, a little air will not hurt the putrid potions of poison stored in the many ware houses scattered all over the state. It is our responsibility to report these things. It is the Control Board's duty to give us the reasons, or at least an excuse to give to our people.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. RAHAUSER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. RAHAUSER. There has appeared on the postponed calendar a bill vital to the people of our state.

The bill is designed to repeal laws that have been in part discredited and ruled unconstitutional by the courts of Dauphin County and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The laws deal with oleomargarine. The oleomargarine laws have outlived both their use and their purpose.

There was a time when these acts had some justification both in what they purported to do, namely, provide for the inspection and purity of oleomargarine, and what they actually did do, namely, render oleomargarine an ineffectual competitor of Pennsylvania-made butter.

These laws did then, and do now, have the effect of keeping oleomargarine from the consumer public.

Those laws when originally enacted, protected the price of butter and dairy commodities. At that time, the manufacture of ice cream was small. The distribution of milk was local. The people of the urban and city communities had not been taught the nutritive value of milk. The consumption of dairy products was less than the state's production.

There was a general feeling that these laws were beneficial to the economic prosperity of our agriculture. There was a feeling that the best assurance of sound economy and good business was the economic prosperity of the Pennsylvania farmer who has so long been one of the stablest elements of our state. But the acts have long outlived their need in this field. It has become surplus legislation in the field of pure foods. So far as being an economic aid to farmers of Pennsylvania they are likewise useless.

The demand for dairy products is far beyond the supply. Today, millions of pounds of milk are imported yearly from other states, some as far away as Wisconsin. In 1945, of the 4,080,836,463 pounds consumed, 997,589,865 pounds were imported from outside of Pennsylvania.

This does not include the approximate 150,000,000 pounds of butter that is imported into this state annually as was reflected in normal years.

The need for milk and dairy products today is so great that the competition of oleomargarine with butter would in no way interfere with the economy of our agriculture.

The oleomargarine acts involved in Senate Bill 190 have no virtue. They hamper the distribution of a healthful food that 100 per cent of consumers of the state desire.

The Act of 1883, May 24, P. L. 43, provides that oleomargarine must be labeled and marked. The Pure Food Act of 1909, P. L. 520, authorized the regulation of oleomargarine as a food, and sets up standards against adulteration.

The Administrative Code of 1929, P. L. 177, as amended, authorizes the drawing of regulations for the control of oleomargarine as a pure food. This Act provides:

"The Department of Agriculture shall have the power, and its duty shall be:

* * * *

(d) To make such rules and regulations, including the adoption of definitions and standards, as shall be necessary for the enforcement of the laws of this Commonwealth relating to oleomargarine, food, drink, and cold storage warehouses;"

These acts amply protect the public.

The Grange, in their opposition to this bill, like the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, are both living in the attitude of thirty years ago. This attitude should not stand in the way of the immediate enactment of Senate Bill 190.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, for the benefit of the members of the Senate I desire at this time to make a few remarks relative to the relief setup and other allied subjects.

Gentlemen, at this time I want to again call your attention to some pertinent facts that point to the possibi-ties of effecting great tax savings in the Administration of public assistance in the Commonwealth.

If you will read the recent bulletin put out by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Assistance, you will note the open confession of this department's officials. They confess they are deliberately giving relief grants below subsistence levels and at the same time paying salaries and expenses to department heads and employees over and above any salaries paid in the history of this department. Let's look at some figures:

The case load for December 1938 was 332,189; administrative expense for that same month was $970,109, or $2.92 per case.

The case load for February 1947 was 170,470; administrative expense for that same period was $726,338, or $4.26 per case.

Gentlemen, these figures are the department's, not mine.

I have pointed out time and time again that the administrative cost of relief administration in Pennsylvania is at an all-time high. The people of this Commonwealth are asked to contribute more and more of their useful dollars towards maintaining a bureaucratic department upon Capitol Hill that has outlived its usefulness. I ask you now, can you still demand the passage of the punitive, oppressive, discriminatory taxes demanded by a budget director whose figures vary so much from biennium to biennium that if any underpaid grade school teacher in Pennsylvania gave him a passing mark in arithmetic she would be dismissed for incompetence.

Are we to saddle the people of Pennsylvania with this new tax load without lifting our fingers to attempt a program of economy? Economy in government has always been the long suit in Republican campaign strategy, but like past year's campaign surplus, it is just another Martin balloon riding high on the winds of insincerity and political convenience.

In Pennsylvania every boy knows some of the traits and habits of that popular little feathered friend, the Martin. They know too that the martins only require a very small hole to get out of a box.

Isn't it strange to hear Ex-Governor Martin demanding economy in Washington, he wants to reduce the federal payroll and slash the federal budget, and yet his cohorts here in Harrisburg are increasing taxes, adding to the administrative payroll costs and giving Pennsylvania's harassed taxpayers the largest budget in the history of the Commonwealth.

In Washington Ex-Governor Martin is squealing like a stuck hog for "less grease in the pork," and that is a direct quote, while here in Harrisburg pork barrels floweth over with juicy contracts, insurance premiums, expense accounts and punitive taxes. What foul crimes are committed against the body politic in the name of urgency and need!

I agree with the governor, there is an urgent need in Pennsylvania. We need courageous men in office to face the facts of the true economy of Pennsylvania, and an urgency for the dismissal of the misleading budget director whose pictures of the past predict a dismal portrait of the future for Pennsylvania and its citizens.

I can go along for the good of Pennsylvania, for all the stream clearance programs, the mental hospital programs, the educational programs, but I repeat my earlier claims—we can do all these things without the Governor's discriminatory taxes.

There are more equitable more reasonable and more reliable sources of revenue. But before we talk of taxes let us get down to the real issues. When and what was and is the surplus, where and what are the economies in government so glibly promised and so readily forgotten?

I might remind Ex-Governor Martin and Governor Duff that economy, like charity begins at home.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. TALLMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I do not intend at this time to take issue with the gentleman from Westmoreland on those subjects generally which he has referred to with regard to the tax program, because I believe that this Senate will have ample opportunity in the future, when those bills come before us, to discuss that subject and I take it, too, that there will be substantial discussion.

However, I should like to direct to the attention of the members of the Senate that portion of the remarks made by the gentleman from Westmoreland having to do with the relief situation.

First, of all, I should like to direct his attention to the fact that it was his party, the Democratic party, which created the situation in Pennsylvania which brought about the entire direction and administration of relief into the state government and took it away from the local level of government.

I should also like to indicate and submit to the gentleman from Westmoreland that the figures which he presents as evidencing increased costs of operation of the Department of Public Assistance must necessarily—and to what extent I am not prepared to say—but I call his attention to the fact that any figures that he gives us today as to the increased cost of operation of the Department of Public Assistance must necessarily include, over the figure which he gives for 1938, salary increases which have affected the employees in that department, and with which I suspect the gentleman from Westmoreland will find no fault, and if it reflects a portion of that, I suggest to him that it is unfair to suggest mismanagement, or that you can automatically and without regard for the people who are working in that department, make any comparison on those bases.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I might inform the gentleman from Lehigh that these figures were given at a hearing before the Committee on Appropriations on Wednesday afternoon, at which time I might report there was only one Senator there, and he happened to be a Democrat. It might have been enlightening for the members of the Senate to have been there because we were informed that the average relief grant in Pennsylvania, which happens to be one of the items that is never contested in debate by the other side, is approximately twenty dollars, and the cost for administration of that relief grant is approximately $4.62 each month. Gentlemen, no private business can sustain that high cost of administration.

And I might answer the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. President, by saying, when he directs his criticism to the Earle Administration for creating the Department of Public Assistance, that in the days when that department was created, the majority load of relief cases was direct relief, and I certainly do not believe the gentleman from Lehigh would dare to insinuate that the Democratic party was responsible for the load that was placed upon relief in Pennsylvania.

If the gentleman from Lehigh will let his mind wonder back a little farther, he will go back to the cool days of Coolidge, the hard days of Harding and the hungry days of Hoover. Those were the days that created the situation that the Democratic party found, when, after sixty-odd years, it was suddenly catapulted into power in Pennsylvania, and found itself confronted with a problem beyond human ability to untangle, and we therefore created an agency to try to do something about it, and to the everlasting credit of that administration no child went hungry in Pennsylvania during those years.

We were forced at that time to place some taxes upon certain groups of individuals in Pennsylvania, which they did not like, and I want to say to them now, Mr. President, that they very gradually have chopped and chopped and chopped away until they have shifted that tax burden, and when the final punitive taxes are passed you will find the burden placed upon the shoulders of people in Pennsylvania least able to pay taxes in this Commonwealth. If for any reason you find any fault with what we have done, then it is your job to correct it.

I say there is fault in the administrative tactics of the department, and I say that the time has come now when the relief load is no longer a direct relief load but one of a more permanent nature of categorical relief cases, and, therefore, we ought to go back to the constitutional provisions and give to the Department of Welfare its just duties, let it handle the categorical relief cases, and thereby relieve this bureau over there. Incidentally, that word ought to be very familiar to you fellows—you have handed it to us and thrown it up to us at every opportunity that we have been bureaucrats and everything under the sun and yet, here on the calendar you are creating another bureau, you are following right in the footsteps you have condemned over the years. You can not stand idly by and watch the taxpayer's money go out of the window in administrative costs, when the people of this Commonwealth are paying their money for relief and they are not getting relief. Twenty dollars average relief allotment is not sufficient in these days of high costs for persons to keep themselves in the decencies they are entitled to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate either of the sponsors of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will either of the gentlemen from Philadelphia be interrogated?

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I shall be happy to be interrogated.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, with regard to Senate Bill 38, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator

Frazier, tell me whether it is a "must" bill or a "may" bill?

Mr. FRAZIER. It is a "may" bill, Mr. President, it is permissive, and I have tears running down my cheeks for anybody who votes against it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, does the gentleman from Philadelphia think this bill will be constitutional?

Mr. FRAZIER. I should rather think so, Mr. President. All the surrounding states have it and I think it has a pretty fair chance of being declared constitutional; it is just a matter of making another legal holiday for banks.

Mr. HALUSKA. What I want to determine, Mr. President, is whether this bill creates a legal holiday, or whether it "may" create a legal holiday.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, it is up to the wish of each individual bank as to whether it shall close on Saturday, if that bank holds that to be a legal holiday, on Saturday alone.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I have received a number of requests, as most of us have, with regard to making Saturday morning a bank holiday. If this bill definitely stated that Saturday would be a holiday, I could support that bill but—I am not a lawyer, of course—but I can not determine in my own mind how we have the power to pass on legislative duties or powers to a group of bank directors. I happen to be a bank director and I can not see how I can help to pass on powers to my group so that we might set up Saturday morning as a bank holiday.

Certainly any man who is learned in the law must come to one conclusion, that this Legislature can not delegate legislative powers to bank directors, as we would then have a chaotic condition in Pennsylvania; we would find some banks declaring Saturday a complete holiday and other banks declaring Saturday a part holiday.

In my little bank, if it were to declare Saturday a holiday, they would find it very difficult to operate, as our farmers and people living in the rural districts do all their banking on Saturdays when they come in for their marketing.

Mr. President, I think this is a bad piece of legislation. However, if the bill were so designed to definitely make Saturday a bank holiday, then we would all find ourselves in the same position but here we find one group of men who would declare Saturday morning a holiday, while in a neighboring community they will take a different attitude.

Again I come back to the statement that in my humble mind I am firmly convinced that we do not have the power to pass legislative powers on to bank directors, and under Senate Bill 38 that is what we are doing, telling bank directors they may declare a holiday if they so see fit.

I think this is a bad piece of legislation and I for one shall vote against it.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, as poor as my memory is, in the back of my mind is a recollection of some very distinguished gentleman one time saying to the Congress of the United States, "do not let any doubt as to the constitutionality of this bill deter you from voting on it"

Therefore, Mr. President, I would suggest do not let any of our Democratic friends, if they have any doubts as to the constitutionality of this bill, refrain from voting in the affirmative on it.

Mr. President, insofar as the compulsory feature of this bill is concerned, I say to the gentleman from Cambria, as to it being a compulsory bill, I was satisfied in my own mind such a bill would not go through the Senate of Pennsylvania. Many of the rural district banks are very busy on Saturday and they do not want to be compelled to close on Saturdays, and therefore we have made this bill a permissive bill, in the hope that the labor situation which confronts the bankers of Pennsylvania will be cured by such a bill. We have had situations where numbers of bookkeepers have resigned from banks because they had to work on Saturday. In answering advertisements for employment, the first question was: are you open on Saturday? That is what confronted us in Philadelphia.

I might say to the distinguished Senator from Cambria that those who do not want to close on Saturday may so regulate their business during the week that they may close half a day on Monday and a half a day on Thursday. I understand in our rural districts Thursday afternoon is really a holiday and the banks could be closed then.

However, Mr. President, do not let any doubt in the minds of the Senators kill this bill. In New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, Delaware, and Massachusetts they have determined that such a bill is constitutional and they are having the same kind of legislation in those states and they are starting to work under that now.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Banking.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lebanon permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BECKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, will the Chairman of the Committee on Banking kindly advise the Senate as to what members composed the subcommittee of the Committee on Banking that reported this bill out on the floor.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I have no objection to doing so, but I am thinking of the propriety of the inquiry of the gentleman from Philadelphia, upon the floor of the Senate.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. I withdraw my interrogation, Mr. President.

Mr. BECKER. I should like to finish my statement, Mr. President. As to the composition of the subcommittee, Mr. President, I shall be perfectly happy to have the Senate be at ease for a minute and I will talk with the Senator from Philadelphia but, so that all of the Senators may understand why I am not definitely answering this question, I doubt the propriety of the question.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. I withdraw the interrogation, Mr. President; there is no need for that.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I want to thank the gentleman from Lebanon for his kind attitude and the courtesy he has extended.

I am free to say, Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, that I was one of the members chosen by the Senator from Lebanon as a member of the sub-committee, and I think the gentlemen from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier and Senator Lord, will agree that even in committee I voiced my opposition.

However, I have always taken the attitude—and in that I may be wrong—that I would vote for almost any bill if the majority is in favor of reporting it out and bringing it before this body for open discussion. Certainly my attitude was such that I felt I should not try and hold the bill in committee.

Mr. President, I should like to further interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. FRAZIER. With pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, during the brief discussion by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier, he stated that banks may close any other afternoon if they so see fit, but I can not find any place within this bill where such wording has been used. I want to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier, whether or not it is true that under this bill they can choose any day they so see fit outside of Saturday.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, as a lawyer I was under the impression that there was no obligation upon a bank to be open from 9 to 5, from 10 to 3, from 8 to 2 or any other particular time, or on any particular day, but the Republican caucus was not satisfied with my thought and I discussed the matter with the Secretary of Banking, or his comptroller, and was informed by him that I could say to the Senate of Pennsylvania that the banks could make any rules or regulations—either state or national banks in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—as to the time they might wish to close, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, providing they did so in such a way that they were in a position to take care of any papers which might come to them which had to be taken care of on that particular day, and there is nothing in the law to prevent them from doing that. This bill does not contain that provision because the law generally does not restrain them from doing that.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, if that be true, then the bank directors may do that at their discretion, then there is no need for such a bill as this, and I can not see why we clutter up the calendar with a bill of this kind, if that is correct. If the gentleman from Philadelphia is correct, that banks can close any day of the week, why bring this bill before this body—it does not mean a thing.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I think this is a very good bill and I am only sorry it is not mandatory rather than permissive.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, inasmuch as I am going to vote against this bill I want to just say two or three words.

First, Mr. President, for perhaps thirty-five years I have more or less been away from my office and for about twenty years I would not get back until Saturday. I unfortunately lived out in the country and did not have a bank at every corner and if I should come back home on Saturday and find the bank closed, either there or in Punxsutawney, Brookville or Indiana, I could not do any business in my county. For fifteen or twenty years I did business in Indiana county five days a week, because it was necessary for me to do it. Now I am past doing business but I am still trying.

What I want to say to you is that there is uncertainty as to what is going to happen and how this bill is going to affect banking interests in the outlying districts.

Mr. President, I say this is not a good thing for the small towns and small communities, because it is inconvenient for them to handle it and do it that way. However, they are entitled to holidays just as much as anyone else and if the city banks and the people in the larger town banks can close any day they want and those boys who have been my clients for twenty-five or thirty years want to rest too on Saturday, they say are we not selfish to have them maintain a bank here. You go up in the woods, you can not get down over the mountains for several days on account of snow, and that has happened within two months; you can not get down some times on account of floods and that has happened within the last week.

There are towns in this county that can not attend to their business like they can in the big towns.

What I am trying to get you to understand is that I am voting against this bill. I do not care how you vote.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I would like to remind the gentleman from Jefferson that this is a permissive bill. I think it is the greatest thing in the world for a small community, with its farmers, to go out for a five-day week. I think it would be better for the health of all of us and for our incomes. This is a permissive bill.

And I also want to thank the bankers of Pennsylvania for following the leadership of labor, calling for a five-day week.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman who just preceded me.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOLLAND. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I desire to ask the gentleman in what county and where he lives.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I live in Allegheny County on the South Side of Pittsburgh, where, a number of years ago, we worked twelve hours a day, seven days a week, and when we went on night turn—and I speak of my own experience in the mills—we worked twenty-four hours; we went to work Sunday morning at six o'clock and got through at seven o'clock Monday morning. Today we are working forty hours a week and everybody is more contented, happier, and has more money.

Mr. WILSON. May I further interrogate the gentleman?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. HOLLAND. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, has the gentleman had experiences in any of the outlying counties, such as Jefferson, Indiana, Cameron, Lycoming, Tioga, and that type of people? Has the gentleman had that experience?

Mr. HOLLAND. Yes, Mr. President, I have. I have spent three months of each year in Huntingdon county working on a farm—and not in the reformatory either—and that is a good Republican county.

Mr. WILSON. I just want to add one more word, Mr. President, and I am through. That is all of my interrogation. I have had fifty-three years of experience in a town that is directly affected by this kind of legislation and therefore I feel I am competent to talk about this bill. That is all I want to say.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 9 Effective Date This act shall be effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, in voting for or against this bill one must be confronted with very serious, deliberate and careful thought and consideration. On its face it might be construed to be an attempt to further break down the sanctity of the Sabbath and to further secularize a holy day—and one who professes to be a Christian, and as I am a vestryman of a church who tries in his modest way to lead a Christian life, must of necessity weigh his vote from every angle.

If this were a bill legalizing the proposed sports on Sunday, I am not sure at this moment how I might vote, but this is not such a bill. It is a bill to permit the people of any given community to determine their wishes in the matter. I think the bill is so worded as possibly to persuade people to go to church rather than to drive them away. The activities proposed in this bill are unlawful in any event before two o'clock in the afternoon and thereafter only lawful until six p. m., and then only if a majority of the voters of the local community so decide.

In the quandary as to the course to pursue, I felt that I needed guidance. Many a Sunday I stand in the rear of my church and wonder why more of the youth of our community are not communicants of the church. It is a source of deep concern to me as to who are going to take the place of the older people I see in the church as and when they pass on, and this problem I think is not confined to my church, to my community or to my city, but is a matter of national concern and I am wondering whether it is because we fail to make Sunday more attractive to the youth.

Yesterday my church was about seven-eighths filled; five years ago we had to put extra chairs down each aisle and in the back of the church. Something is taking them away. I am afraid many people have a wrong conception of the Sabbath; the old puritanical idea still lives in the minds of many people in Pennsylvania.

With concern as to the wisdom of my course of action, I discussed it with my Rector, Rev. D. Wilmot Gateson. He had previously read of the action of the committee in reporting the bill out by Rev. Dr. Ruth. His statement was briefly—"We have Sunday movies; we have Sunday baseball; if the people want other secular activities on Sunday they should be permitted to have them by their vote. I may be too broad in my views, but I am afraid that narrow-mindedness is doing more to keep the youth away from church than anything else. Don't misunderstand me, Bert. I don't want Sunday sports to take the place of church. I want those who desire Sunday sports to recognize their obligation to the church. I am hopeful that clean recreation will make for a clean mind and for a desire to attend church. You know that I feel that Sunday should be considered a feast day, a day of rejoicing and a day of happiness. In fact, every Sunday in my mind should be a little Easter, and if so, church, religion and happy activities can go hand in hand."

I would like to read into the record the letter I received from my pastor, the Rev. D. Wilmot Gateson.

"Dear Bert:

"I see no reason to oppose the bill for permission to carry on certain added sports on Sundays. Certainly there is no sin in them, and as long as they do not prevent church attendance at the customary hours, they may be a far more wholesome way for some people to entertain and recreate themselves than other ways. The old blue Sunday laws were by no means an unmixed blessing. However, it is naturally my prayer that our Lord will receive His worship on His day, and that nothing will interfere with that by legal enactment.

Faithfully your friend,

D. WILMOT GATESON, The Rector."

Mr. President, with that opinion from the rector, and the opinion I had, I feel it is my duty to vote for this bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, for a number of years I have voted in favor of bills liberalizing the Sabbath, and the record shows I have voted for all those measures.

However, there is an old saying that a wise man will change his mind but a fool never will. I am getting to an age now when I am beginning to realize what we have done in the past. Like most of these men, I have a family of my own, and I have noticed my own family slowly but surely getting away from the church and taking advantage of Sunday activities. I believe we have gone too far afield. The day must come when we here in the Legislature must draw the line.

Mr. President, you will recall a couple of years ago billboards throughout the width and breadth of Pennsylvania bore the slogan "Go to church on Sundays" and then we got in the war and you would go to church and look at the crowded audiences, but now the youth is missing and it is our fault for making it possible for them to have all this Sunday entertainment.

This will be the first time I have voted against a Sunday bill, but I am going to vote against this measure and other measures to follow. I think we have gone too far. The coming generation certainly has very little thought of going to church and if we continue in the future as we have in the past I am afraid we will do penance for our sins.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I am fully aware of the fact that the Sabbath Day was the main factor in shaping our civilization. An ancient thinker said once upon a time that more than civilization contributed to the Sabbath; the Sabbath contributed to civilization.

So far as I personally feel, I would like to vote against this bill, but I represent a community of hard working people who toil and moil all during the week, and they have only one day within which they can seek recreation and clean sports, and I feel, pursuing the wishes of this community, I must vote in favor of this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, having voted under a misapprehension, I desire to change my vote from "no" to "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will be so recorded.

pheasants chukar partridges or mallard or black ducks or upon which to release such numbers and species of birds when legally propagated or purchased for shooting and other purposes on lands owned or leased by him or it shall first secure a regulated shooting grounds permit from the commission. The application in addition to other information required by the commission shall state the approximate number of each of the foregoing species of game birds to be reared or purchased and released for shooting purposes on said property during the ensuing year.

No regulated shooting grounds permit shall be issued for less than one hundred (100) acres in one tract of land or land and water combined nor shall such permit be issued until the commission has satisfied itself that said shooting ground will not be inimical to the public interest.

The boundary of the premises so licensed shall be marked by a single strand of wire or other fence and shall be posted with printed notices not more than one hundred yards apart and containing such wording as the commission may prescribe.

In lieu of maintaining a single strand of wire or other fence where a clearly visible boundary already exists such as a regularly used roadway or highway the licensee may post the required notices on each side of all roadways or other entrances leading into the area and elsewhere at intervals not exceeding fifty yards apart. Where such unfenced boundary line passes through forest or brush land or briar thickets or high weed growth the licensee shall maintain a cleared strip of five or more feet from which brush weed and other high growth is removed annually.

Section 2 Section four hundred eleven of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 517) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 411 Shooting Restrictions on Regulated Grounds. Such permits shall entitle the holder or holders thereof and their guests to kill or take by shooting only not to exceed seventy-five per centum of the pheasants and chukar partridges and ninety per centum of the mallard or black ducks propagated or purchased and released on the premises each year said propagation or release to be established to the satisfaction of the commission.

All game birds released on said regulated shooting grounds shall be full-winged and fully able to care for themselves in a wild state and wherever the commission deems it desirable all mature birds released shall bear a metal leg band of a type approved by it. Such propagated or released birds may be taken without regard to sex or age or daily or season bag limits so long as not more than the specified percentages herein enumerated are taken during the shooting period below authorized [but no shooting for pheasants chukar partridges or mallard or black ducks shall be done on said premises prior to the date and hour of the general state-wide open season for small game as fixed by this act or the commission nor after December thirty-first of any year].

(a) The period for taking domestically produced pheasants and chukar partridges on regulated shooting grounds in areas where wild ringneck pheasants thrive and normally produce a shootable supply of such birds shall begin on the date and hour of the general state-wide open season for small game as fixed by the act or the commission and continue to the thirty-first day of December inclusive.

(b) The period for taking such ringneck pheasants and chukar partridges on regulated shooting grounds established in areas other than those stipulated in paragraph (a) above shall be fixed by the commission without regard to the general state-wide open season for small game the period so fixed to be certified to the holders of such permits at least thirty days in advance of the season.

(c) The period for taking domestically produced mallard or black ducks on regulated shooting grounds unless otherwise fixed and so certified by the commission shall conform with the season established for waterfowl hunting by Federal regulations in effect for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

All species of game other than those specified found on the premises covered by such regulated shooting grounds permits may be taken on said premises only under the general provisions of the law governing seasons bag limits etc.

Every person hunting on such regulated shooting grounds or participating in a shoot held under a regulated shooting grounds permit shall be possessed of a resident or nonresident hunter's license for the current year as required by law.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 307, as follows:

An Act proposing an amendment to section five of article fourteen of the Constitution providing for fixing salaries of county officers and employees.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows:

Section 1 The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof.

That section five of article fourteen of said Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Section 5 The compensation of county officers and employees who are paid out of the county treasury shall be fixed by salary boards to be established in each county in accordance with general law. All county officers who are or may be salaried shall pay all fees which they may be authorized to receive into the treasury of the county or the State as may be directed by law.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clinton.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Clinton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEVENSON. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I would like to ascertain how this proposed amendment will affect bills that are now pending pertaining to salaries of court attaches.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, this will not affect them in any way whatever. This is a constitutional amendment and it will have to be passed by another session of the General Assembly and then be voted upon by the people. At that time an enabling act will be drawn up to carry out the constitutional amendment.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, may I now interrogate the gentleman from Delaware?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. STIEFEL. Last week a bill sponsored by Senator Lane and Senator Tarr was sent back to committee on the basis that this bill would be introduced. Today, Mr. President, there is on the calendar a bill pertaining to Philadelphia, and I wonder what will be the fate of that bill; will it also be sent back to committee

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I do not know what action the Senate will take on that bill until we arrive at that point on the calendar. I do not feel it would be proper for me to answer for the Senate, Mr. President—I do not quite have that right to answer.

Mr. STIEFEL. In order to be consistent, Mr. President, should not the bill pertaining to Philadelphia be treated in the same way as the other bill sent back to committee.

Mr. HEYBURN. As I understand, Mr. President, today there was a bill introduced by Senator Stevenson which covers the matter of local salaries, excepting those that must be fixed by the Legislature according to the Constitution, namely, row officeholders.

Mr. STIEFEL. Then, Mr. President, the gentleman will not pass upon bill No. 317, which is the bill I am referring to as the Philadelphia bill, until we reach it, which is on today's calendar, and it will not be until that time that we will know the fate of that bill.

Mr. HEYBURN. I guess that is about right, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered. That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 313, as follows:

An Act authorizing and empowering cities of the first class of this Commonwealth to acquire by purchase or lease or condemnation any land within said cities with the buildings thereon if any to construct buildings and facilities thereon to operate the same as parking lots or public garages subject to certain conditions or to lease such parking lots or garages for private operation and to fix the terms and conditions of such leases

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 That the cities of the first class of this Commonwealth shall have the power and they are hereby authorized to acquire procure or obtain by purchase lease or condemnation any land within said cities with the buildings or structures erected thereon if any and to construct buildings and facilities thereon for the purpose of using such land as and for parking lots or public garages whenever in the judgment of the city council acquisition of such lands may be necessary desirable or useful for the relief or abatement of congestion in its streets or highways The title acquired by the city exercising the power of condemnation shall be a title in fee simple

Section 2 Whenever any lands shall be acquired by any such city for parking lots or garages they may be operated by such city as parking lots or garages for parking motor vehicles only but not for the sale or distribution of any commodity or when so provided by ordinance they may be let to and for private operation as parking lots or garages on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by ordinance

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I wish to speak on this bill.

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I am going to vote for this fragmentary piece of legislation because I sincerely believe that Philadelphia is in dire need of parking space places. However, my conscience revolts at the methods that have been employed to place this bill on our calendar. It seems that the principal protagonist is the Philadelphia Inquirer, a great newspaper, one of the greatest in the United States; in fact, its publisher is a young man who is filling the shoes of his beloved father and is following the policy of that great newspaper with a miraculous ability.

However, Mr. President, I do not like hatchet men. When I think of hatchet men I think of the Chinese. When the Chinese had to destroy anyone, they did not kill—they just sent their hatchet men out.

Mind you, Mr. President, I can realize how a newspaper of the importance of the Philadelphia Inquirer, an independent newspaper in the city of Philadelphia, has so many problems before it that sometimes a thing will slide through or things be done without prudent examination.

As I said previously, my conscience revolted because I became a little suspicious when I read columns and columns about this poor George Stevenson from Lock Haven, a former mayor of Lock Haven, a town of ten thousand inhabitants—what a bad man he was and what he was trying to do to the city of Philadelphia. Instantly I saw a bunch of scavengers and parasites moving around in this assembly who were interested in the passage of this skeleton legislation.

Mr. President, look at this skeleton bill and tell me if you think this bill gives you any idea what is going to be done. It lacks flesh and clothes, and I wonder who is going to give vitamins to this bill. Will they be department store vitamins? I wonder who is going to put clothes on this body after it gets its flesh?

And I say, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, when there is legislation before this Senate, it is about time that the conscience of each individual Senator should work, independent of intimidation and force.

Two years ago I presented a bill in this Assembly dealing with the F.E.P.C. and the Philadelphia Record had an editorial praising me one day and the next day they knocked the dickens out of me.

Mr. President, there has been a mistake somewhere down the line and I do not feel it could have been the publisher because he is a splendid character, he is a fine individual. I admire him because I know he is quite ably filling the shoes of that man who put the Philadelphia Inquirer on its feet in Philadelphia.

Remember, Mr. President, that those who have put up such a squawk for this bill will have to answer to the citizens of Philadelphia if it does not work out. Mr. President, what is the hurry for passage of this bill? Is the expiration of the ninety days coming up on some agreement somewhere? What is the reason; why so much haste.

Mr. President, here is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Lord, with a bill for the Bureau of Weights and Measures, against those chisellers who cheat the housewives out of weight in the different stores every day—why don't they "pry" that bill out; if you will remember, Mr. President, one of the articles said this bill was pruned out of George Stevenson's committee, and that was unfair because I have served on committees with him for many years and I know he is a conscientious man, a man who feels he owes a duty to the community, the state and everyone else. You don't have to "pry" out of his committee.

Gentlemen, it is about time we stop this horse-play, because there are many other bills in this assembly that are just as important as this skeleton. As I said, there is a bill which has been presented by my colleague from Philadelphia, Senator Lord, and then there is that poor divorce bill of mine in one of the committees, relating to masterships, under which all lawyers should be treated alike—I hope the Philadelphia Inquirer will give a little talk to the committee chairman on that too.

You see, gentlemen of the Senate, George Stevenson is a Republican, and I happen to be a Democrat, but I feel that in this room we should be men and not mice, and I thought this a proper time for me to rise in my place and express myself as to my friendship and as to the way I admire the Senator from Clinton, because I feel that he adds to this assembly and that there is a credit to the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. JAPAN. Mr. President, I fully agree with what my friend from Philadelphia, Senator DiSilvestro, has said. I think somewhere in Shakespeare, probably in Hamlet, there is the expression, suit the actions to the words and suit the words to the actions, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator DiSilvestro, has answered that description very capably.

However, as far as I myself am concerned, I have this much to say with respect to this particular bill: I realize the need for it, it is very important. I have here a statement which I prepared only yesterday.

I am very much in favor of the crusade launched by the Philadelphia Inquirer to protect the public against cheating by unscrupulous dealers in their weights and measures, the exaction of extortionate fees by ticket scalpers, and the gouging of the public by parking lot operators. The Philadelphia newspaper has been determined and persistent in their position and bid fair to accomplish their purpose. In their sincere effort to eradicate these evils they have sought the aid of the Legislature. And so with the traffic menace now confronting Philadelphia, occasioned by congestion.

The bill before us is an important one and I am ready to vote for it. However, it is unfortunate in that certain pertinent questions were put by me to the city officials interested in the bill before us and they still remain unanswered. I am very much afraid that those charged with the responsibility (and I mean the city officials) of putting this bill over failed miserably in their duties, and hence brought about a situation, very unpleasant, to say the least to one or two honorable members of our body.

When city officials call on us to sponsor and vote for legislation, they should unfold everything, and if they don't know, should obtain the desired information. Candor and sincerity should be the order of the day. Too often, Philadelphia officials, pretending to have knowledge of the purposes of bills affecting Philadelphia, have resorted to ruse and subterfuge to obtain favorable consideration by our body. Very often, bills are presented to us by city officials for introduction, purporting to have the blessings of various branches of the city government, when in fact such is not the case.

That particular thing galls me because if we had honestly that situation would not have been brought about. I am not condemning the Philadelphia Inquirer—I think they are within their rights—but they were misled by that gentleman from Philadelphia who purports to be the leader of the legislative group of council and he has his own interests and as I go on I will tell you what those interests are.

These are the questions put to city officials by me within the past few weeks, and I mention them in order.

First. How many parking lots will be built? I think that is a very fair question.

The next question is: Where will they be erected? In the central city, adding to the congestion, or outside, just beyond the beam of the central section of Philadelphia?

Third, will they be operated for profit? I would like to know whether the city is going into that business for profit or not. That is a very fair question.

Fourth. Will private homes be condemned for the purpose? When the committee met, Mr. President, this councilman from Philadelphia said there was no need to put any restriction in the bill, they would not do that, but the bill is before us and how does it read—we do not know where they will be put or where they will be built. Who is this councilman who could speak for the city of Philadelphia, people in my district and others? It is not fair, it is not honest. I have no personal grudge or grievance, but let him be honest with his party. That is what we want.

Fifth, how much will be expended for this particular purpose? Will it be one, two, three or two million dollars? Nobody knows. Neither does the representative of the city of Philadelphia.

The sixth question I think is a very important one: Will they be built at a time when labor and construction costs are high? We know what it would cost today to build parking lots or garages or homes or apartment houses.

The next question I put to them still remains unanswered: How many cars can you accommodate in any one garage or parking lot that you erect, assuming that this becomes a law? No answer; he does not know.

The most important question is: Will the lots be so situated and accommodate sufficient numbers as to relieve congestion or will it increase congestion? No answer to that question either.

Is that honestly? Is that the candor we expect? We have not gotten it yet from the city officials.

I am not criticizing the Inquirer. They believed those city officials and thought they were honest and came out with the truth, but there was an ulterior motive and I will come to that as I read my speech, but it is high time that we as Senators should know what is going on in the city of Philadelphia. I am not politically motivated, and I say that honestly. Time and time again on this floor when I thought the other side was right, I have not hesitated to so state, but when you were wrong I usually so said and voted against you. And so in this particular matter.

There are very simple questions and call for intelligent answers. Frankly, under ordinary circumstances I would vote against the bill in its present form, and I agree with Senator Stevenson that it is vague and loosely drawn, with no restrictions and no limitations as to what the city may do. Go ahead, give them carte-blanche power to do what they please, and we are giving them that power, but apparently we have not looked into the past record. However, I have confidence in the Philadelphia Inquirer and I sincerely hope that they will prod the city officials, assuming that this bill becomes a law, and there is no doubt it will be, to build parking lots or garages at proper places, at the proper time and at a minimum cost to the taxpayer.

Mr. President, it is also unfortunate in that industry—and when I say industry I mean private industry—has failed to build these garages. The traffic commission, in their recent report, stated that private industry should for their own benefit build parking lots, but, however, if industry did not, that the city should. Without elaborating, industry did not make the attempt, notwithstanding the possible benefit to them. Hence the need for this bill, at a cost of approximately a few million dollars to the taxpayers of the city of Philadelphia.

City operation or management of a new business represents to me a form of socialism. However, where it means the expenditure of considerable money, private industry would even tolerate socialism. It may be the forerunner or harbinger of control by the government of many industries, who knows, but after all, it may be good in cases where the public has been exploited or imposed upon by profiteers, particularly as to prices on the necessities of life, without an O.P.A., which has been so often condemned.

Mr. President, this is very important and I wish everybody would hear me out on this particular point—it is further unfortunate, in that reports have it that land has already been bought up in anticipation that it will be condemned for parking lots—there are reports. These vultures and vipers, and particularly greedy real estate brokers, apparently are ready to strike again. It has happened before and I am inclined to believe this report. It is also regrettable, my friends, that our city of Philadelphia—and I say that without political motivation whatsoever—has been very slow and dilatory in completing or even starting important projects, although the green light has time and again been given to them.

And so with the proposed project of parking lots. To my mind, notwithstanding what we do, that is far from a reality. The city will again have to talk about it for many years. The case of pure water for the city of Philadelphia is a striking example of the neglect of the city fathers to do something which they promised to do over and over again.

Notwithstanding everything I have said, Mr. President, I shall vote for this bill, knowing full well that the Philadelphia Inquirer and other newspapers in the city will carry this matter through to completion.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am going to vote against this bill and I would like to explain why I do not approve of measures such as this.

I have no quarrel with the city of Philadelphia or its parking problem. I appreciate the fact that it is an acute one, in attempting to get motor vehicles off the streets for long-time or short-time parking. I have no particular concern with any personages that might be on the city council or any of the great newspapers that are printed in the city of Philadelphia, or any individuals who might represent those newspapers here in Harrisburg.

The thing that impresses me about this bill is the fact that they are putting the city of Philadelphia into business, competing with private industry. I recognize the fact, Mr. President, that platforms and policies and philosophies of twenty or twenty-five years ago that were considered extremely liberal at that time are now considered conservative, and I appreciate the fact that government must progress and that philosophy of government must progress, as science and education progress here in this Commonwealth and in this Republic.

I can remember when I went to school, if they cited the example of government going into business to compete with private industry, such as we have done here in House Bill 313, that was used as an example of national socialism, and I still think it is.

I want to point out to the members of the Senate that I do not think this is the proper way to solve the parking problem in the city of Philadelphia. Here they give city council the right, when city council decides willy-nilly, here is a piece of property we are going to take over and make a parking lot or a parking garage out of it, by a majority vote of council, they can purchase or condemn that property and take it over. There probably would be opportunity of appeal from the condemnation proceedings—I am not going to quarrel with that—and then the city of Philadelphia can operate that parking garage or that parking lot, in competition with private industry attempting to operate a similar lot or a similar garage right across the street, and Mr. John Doe, the taxpayer operating that private garage across the street, will be assessed and he will pay taxes to the city of Philadelphia and the city controlled garage will operate without paying taxes.

Mr. President, as I understood the spokesman for Philadelphia city council, he admitted in his discussion of this bill before the committee that they did not hope at this time to operate these parking lots or these parking garages at a profit, and that means that the deficit will be made up from the general tax fund, and if they can not operate these at a profit, without paying taxes, I do not see that they have much quarrel with that portion of private enterprise attempting to operate them at a profit on the fees or prices that they charge for storing or parking cars in the city of Philadelphia.

It may be that we have arrived at the time when we are going to throw government into business and compete with private industry.

It may be perfectly fair to say, how about a municipality having a water system but remember that when you have a municipality furnishing services like a water system or a lighting plant that is owned by a borough or a city, there you have them operating an exclusive franchise that is not in competition with private industry—it is operated exclusively.

Here you have them going into an entirely new phase of business under the guise of getting the cars off the streets, where the city will be operating a business that will not be taxed, with employes who will be city employes, with all of the advantages of a non-taxed corporation, and in competition with the taxpayers in the city of Philadelphia, who have thousands and thousands of dollars invested in the business that they are attempting to operate, with employes who are dependent upon their salaries for their daily livelihood, with perhaps a mortgage parked in some bank in the city of Philadelphia, where its mortgage funds are invested out of trust estates. There are many ramifications that could be carried to extreme degrees.

The major premise in my dissatisfaction with this bill is the fact that it is the first step, in my opinion, in putting government in business in competition with private industry.

Mr. President, I am opposed to this bill and propose to vote against it. In my opinion we have not yet come to the point here in the Senate of Pennsylvania where we are going to openly advocate socialistic bills as the adopted policy of this Senate.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I desire to state my own personal opinion concerning this legislation.

I have no quarrel to find with the city of Philadelphia in the way that it feels it needs to deal with this civic problem. I do however, Mr. President, have a grave objection to the principle that is involved in this legislation. My feeling in large part is based upon much of what has been said by the gentleman from Allegheny about the bill. It seems to me that the Philadelphia problem is not much different from the problem which is faced by many other communities. It seems to me that the problem of keeping the streets clear, the problem of merchants being able to do business with people who have easy access to their places of business, is one of the paramount problems involved in this kind of legislation.

The city of Philadelphia has a tremendous number of wealthy merchants; it has a great number of merchants who have done business in that community for a great many years.

I suggest, Mr. President, that one of the ways to meet this problem is one that was followed in the city of Allentown just recently, my own community, when the same kind of traffic problem, the same kind of parking problem, was recognized, and the merchants of that community got together and cooperated in what is known as park and shop, which has now gotten prominence all over this nation as being one of the means by which this problem can be met. There, by the initiative of business people, by the initiative of civic-minded people, a corporation was formed, the purpose of which is to buy in a proper manner parking facilities, and the merchants themselves, by running that business, are going to stand the loss or the profit, as the case may be, of easing up the traffic in the streets and providing decent and accessible parking places for people to do their business in the community.

It seems to me that the problem is not a hopeless one if this kind of legislation is not passed.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, first I would like to answer a few of the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Jaspan, who enumerated a lot of questions which he had asked and to which he had received no answers.

He wanted to know how many of these parking lots or garages there would be in Philadelphia, where they would be, in what locations, how much they would cost.

I submit to the members of the Senate that at this stage of the game, when the city is only asking for the green light to go ahead, these questions can not be answered. We have not to date had a survey made to answer all these questions, when we do not even have the power to do this thing. We are asking for the power to condemn land for the purpose of building these garages or parking lots to take care of this situation; how, at this early stage, can answers be ready to those questions.

After this authority has been granted to the city and responsible officials have gone into this matter, they no doubt will be able to answer the questions of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Jaspan.

The gentleman from Philadelphia also asked whether the city was going to condemn homes for the purpose of building garages. Members of the Senate, this merely grants the power, to another elective body, to build these garages and put up these parking lots, and why should I assume that those men in city council would be less honest and less of politicians, if I may use that word, than we are here in the Senate. They will be responsible to the public will down there, and if the public complains about what they are doing, you know perfectly well they will not do any more than we would do here in this Senate.

The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, suggested that private enterprise should do this and that this was the first step towards socialism. Well, private enterprise had the opportunity to do this and they have not done it.

The gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Tallman, suggests that the merchants get together and build parking lots or parking garages. The answer to that is that they have not done it. We have the problem. We have no parking facilities down town and you are not even allowed to park on the streets between Twenty-first Street and Fifth Street, I believe, and from Market Street south almost to Locust, I believe it is, there is no place for a person who wants to come down town in his automobile and park his car.

These garages are not really private enterprises. They are part of the highway system. In order to use our highways with automobiles we must be able to park our cars some place and these are adjuncts of that highway system.

The gentleman talked about private enterprise and he referred to city facilities. You know perfectly well, Mr. President and members of the Senate, that there are numerous municipalities in this state where the services, electricity, water, sewage and other such services, are supplied by the municipality, and there are others where those services are supplied by private enterprise, if you will.

The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, says they are going to compete with private enterprise. Let me tell you this: in Philadelphia we have private garage collectors and we also have private trash collectors and they are being competed with by our city garbage collection and our city trash collection.

Then the gentleman complains that this is going to take property out of city taxation. When you build a highway it does to a certain extent take property out of city taxation, where a highway comes in and occupies that space. We will lost in city taxes from the approaches to the Delaware River Bridge, because homes and businesses on both sides of the street where it is to be widened are taken over for highway purposes, but the added advantage to the community by that advancement is much more repaid in other respect and the loss in taxes will be made up in other respects. It is just like putting a new highway into an unopened section of the city—property values advanced and the city gets it back in another direction. There is no difference in the loss in taxes than, for instance, where the city takes over ground to make a playground. We feel in Philadelphia that the advantages that the city will get out of that playground for this improvement will much outweigh the loss in taxes, even though we have to operate the playground or these garage properties at a loss.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have studied House Bill No. 313 pretty well while in committee and since it has been on the floor, and also listening to the Philadelphia

Inquirer, which I think was very unfair in the treatment they have given this bill, as otherwise I do not think any of this debate would have occurred on the floor here today.

I do think probably Philadelphia has put the cart before the horse, because I think they should have made a survey before coming here with this bill, because we in the city of Pittsburgh have faced the same problem and we have completed our survey and have it out in printed pamphlet form. I think off-street parking is a problem which rightly belongs to the city, or some corporate body within the city.

There is no use in having the city as a terminus and then having no place to park an automobile and that is something that must be corrected.

Senator Walker says they will be competing with private industry. I say to Senator Walker, if he can tell us one person in Pittsburgh who will invest money in a parking garage, the city authorities there would love to have his name and they will encourage him to the nth degree, they would encourage him to build, because the history of public garages in Pittsburgh is that they feel they have gone through a wringer.

Downtown in our city there are two or three large major parking lots near a large hotel there. Just within the past few months those places have been sold for the erecting of some new industries—one of them by the Pittsburgh Sun Telegraph, and I have forgotten just who is taking the other. When those two lots are gone I do not know where the people of Pittsburgh are going to park their cars.

As it is now, we have about twelve thousand cars coming down into our city each day, and there is no place to store them. Also there are two different types of parking. There is the man who comes downtown and parks all day, and then there is the person who comes downtown, probably to call on his lawyer or see his doctor, and so forth, and they are short-time parkers. I think when the city of Philadelphia starts to build these garages, they will take that into consideration.

My main point is to tell you men that we are attacking this in a different way. We are asking the Legislature to allow us to form a parking authority in the city of Pittsburgh and in so doing we will receive back about eighty per cent of the tax value of the ground and the property.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, in answer to my friend from Philadelphia I want to repeat that I am not opposed to this bill. However, I want to feel that justice is done to the citizenry of Philadelphia. His complaint that politics enters into any matter applies in Philadelphia as it does here. If there is politics, examining the history of good government the best politics is good government.

Let me point out to him that when complaints were made by our citizens to the council of the city of Philadelphia, those complaints fell upon deaf ears. I repeat what I said at the very outset, that the citizenry of Philadelphia has been clamoring for pure water for the past twenty years. Have they gotten it? Just talk idle talk. May be twenty more years and we will get pure water. The citizenry of Philadelphia asked that a subway be constructed under Locust street, at a cost of millions of dollars. What happened? Millions of dollars have been spent but there is no Locust street subway. And so with the Arch street subway. We have a tunnel under the Schuylkill river that was put there at a cost of millions of dollars. Council approved the loan and everything else and is it operating today? Absolutely not. So even if you do not agree, it does not mean a thing.

Frankly, as far as this bill is concerned, let me say for the information of the Senator from Philadelphia, a survey has been made and it took them over a year to make that survey, to show that Philadelphia is in need of parking lots or public garages to relieve traffic congestion, and they went so far as to suggest certain places in the city of Philadelphia where those parking lots could be erected. So they are in a position to favor Philadelphia, providing they do the right thing, but what can you expect when, after questions are put to the officials of the city of Philadelphia as to location, as to the need, as to whether or not it will really relieve congestion, there is no answer.

As to a survey, say again the Philadelphia Inquirer, and every Philadelphia newspaper, is aware of this commission appointed by the mayor of the city of Philadelphia, and they made their report.

They did say, however, and I will repeat it again, in line with what the gentleman from Pittsburgh said, Senator Walker, that private industry should build these garages and if the city builds them it is a form of socialism.

I do not know whether that is good or not. Probably private industry is responsible for not having done it, because after all it will inure to their benefit, but whenever the citizenry of Philadelphia has called upon city council, they have done it time and time again, they have asked for pure water and for lower electric rates and what has happened? No answer. The P.U.C. taxicab boys were promised aid by the city council of Philadelphia and the mayor, but at the hearings where were they? Neither one was represented. What does that show? Just political chicanery.

I wish we had less politics—and when I say politics I mean organized politics, to the point where they dictate to our people as to what they should do, and probably to us, and after all, we are elected by the people, we have a right to represent them, but that right means little or nothing today.

If anybody would dare be bold enough, courageous enough, to fight the leaders of any party, even if it is against their consciences, what would happen to them? I dare say that every time I have been in the Senate and any question came up, whether the bill would favor the Democratic or Democratic side, I did not care whom it hurt or whom it helped, I voted with my conscience. That is the trouble with our government today. This is democracy, a representative form of government, we people are sent to the Senate and to the House to do the bidding of the people, but the leaders, for their own aggrandizement, club the Senators and Representatives into doing their bidding. There are many who feel as I do privately but they dare not publicly express those opinions. And so in Philadelphia. I have no grievance, I have no score to settle with any particular individual, but I can show you three or four bills that are now on the calendar, or will be on the calendar in a few weeks, where they deliberately lied, purporting that those bills were sponsored or had the blessing of the city administration or some branch, when the reverse is true. Is that the sort of politics you want up here to guide us? Is that the sort of leadership that the Senate wants? Let them be honest with us. Yes, we need parking lots and we need parking garages. I would sooner have it in the hands of private industry, but if not the city must build them. I disagree with Senator Kephart that there was no survey. There was a survey and we have the report. So let us go along with that report and we will have these parking lots and public garages to relieve congestion.

The Philadelphia Inquirer is absolutely right, but they have been misled by some city officials and particularly as to one point, that is, where Senator Stevenson suggested that private homes should not be condemned for the purposes of these parking lots or garages and there is no question that is a difficult question—are we going to condemn private homes so that we may have new parking lots—if you take one or two men out of their homes it is not worth a parking lot or public garage. It is tough and difficult enough today to get facilities for living, and that is one of the primary wants of life, food, clothing and shelter, and in this case it means shelter.

We have the survey and we have the opportunity to go ahead, but I say Philadelphia will not do a thing unless the newspapers crystalize sufficient public sentiment to put it over.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Jaspán.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JASPAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. FRAZIER. I just want to ask the Senator one question: has his oratory been addressed to the Senate for the purpose of having this bill passed or defeated?

Mr. JASPAN. Let me say to Senator Frazier of Philadelphia, sometimes I wonder whether he has outgrown his youth or manhood. It seems to me it is a question of ability with him because every time—he asked for it and he is going to get it—every time a man gets up—

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

Mr. JASPAN. He asked for it and he is going to get it.

Mr. FRAZIER. I did not ask for another speech. I asked a question which I wanted answered, whether he is for this bill or against it. I would like to know.

Mr. JASPAN. I think he has good ears, but if he is hard of hearing I will repeat: I am for the bill. I think my voice is loud enough, probably the loudest in the Senate and I have repeated four or five times I am for the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, to refresh the memory of the Senate, in 1939 and 1941, in the James administration, many a night I held this House in session until the wee hours talking about flood control. I am glad to see that at last the Republican party has come to realize that a flood control commission in Pennsylvania is needed, but up to date all the flood control work in Pennsylvania has been done by the Democratic administration in Washington. Under the Democratic administration, 1934 to 1938, practically all the progress made in Pennsylvania on flood control was made.

Then came that great miner, Mr. James, into office and if you remember, he refused to go along with the federal government; he would not accept any federal grant unless they put a clause in the agreement stating that no dams would be used to generate electrical energy, with the result that millions of dollars that the state of Pennsylvania should have received went to other states, due to the stubbornness of Governor James, the Republican governor at that time.

Then along came Governor Martin, who had the excuse of the war, cost, hardness of getting labor, and there was not much done under Martin.

It seems now that after eight years the Republican party has awakened and really is going to put through flood control in a big way.

Away back in 1904, the Chamber of Commerce in Pittsburgh spent a hundred thousand dollars to make a survey of the state on flood control—all the interests in Pittsburgh pitched in and contributed that $100,000,000 for use in this survey, but when the survey was made, there was an error made, as the engineers said that the dam, in addition to according protection for the flooded areas of Pennsylvania, could be used to generate cheap electrical energy, with the result that the suggestions and plans were killed because, as in the James administration, the utilities were in control of the government.

I want to congratulate the Republicans at last for following the leadership of the Democrats in Washington, and the four years of Democratic rule in Pennsylvania from 1934 to 1938, in getting behind flood control. We Democrats here will help you all we can.

As a parting word I would ask you Republicans to send word to all Republican members of the committee to support the appropriation for the Conemaugh Dam and see that every member of the Republican committee votes for the $3,000,000 which will be necessary to continue the construction of the Conemaugh Dam in the coming year.

I am glad to see that the Republicans are following our leadership. We hope you will continue flood control and we hope you will divorce your connection with the utilities, so that some day we may use these dams to afford cheap electrical energy to the people of Pennsylvania.

PRAYER

Rev. C. Bailey Jones, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Ridley Park, the guest of Mr. Layer offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Father of humanity, we thank Thee for the heritage and privilege of our beloved Country, and for the wisdom with which Thou hast led it from its perilous beginnings through all difficulties and dangers to this day of grace; reverently we take it to our hearts as we lift our prayer to Thee, beseeching Thee with passionate tenderness that Thy people may be delivered from every evil, turned from every error, and kept in the highway of a divine vocation; that Thy will may be done in fraternal righteousness, and Thy purpose fulfilled in the amplitude, power and prophecy of a nation called of Thee for a vast and holy errand in the world.

O God, together we confess our personal and social sin, beseeching Thee to forgive our blindness, our indifference, and our hardness of heart. Show us that we are members of one another, and that the hurt of one is an injury to all and a sin against Thee. Create in us a passion for justice, that freedom may be a blessing, and liberty bear the fruit of righteousness and good will.

We pray Thou to bless the members of this Legislative body, the Governor of our State, and all those in authority, and give to them and us, wisdom, fore-sight, and guidance in our every walk of life.

We offer this prayer in the Name and Spirit of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to refer to page 2, line 2 of this bill and I should like to ask the gentleman,—the bill reads as follows:

"In cities of the first class in all cases where taxes are due and unpaid upon a single tract of land and it is desired to divide such tract into separate parcels the Board of Revision of Taxes is hereby authorized to apportion such taxes ratably between or among the parcels so divided."

I would like to know from the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, who should desire to divide or sub-divide those tracts.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I would assume that it would be the desire of the Board of Revision of Taxes which is referred to in the next line if the gentleman will read that far.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman whether he is aware that at the last session of the Legislature the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, introduced House Bill 100, which was this bill exactly except that five words were left out of the bill, and those words were after the word "desire," "by the owner or owners of such tract."

Would the gentleman object to having this bill amended to provide for the owner to sub-divide the tracts if he so desired for tax purposes.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. The gentleman has two questions that he asks me.

I will answer first by saying I am wholly cognizant of the fact, and I know that this bill was introduced at the last session of the Legislature.

To answer the gentleman's second question I would say I am not agreeable to having that amendment put in.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know further from the gentleman if this bill became law it would be quite possible for the Board of Revision of Taxes to sub-divide a tract of land, having the owner sell the good part of the tract for three hundred per cent more than the taxes that are due, put the profit in his pocket and let the city hold the bag as it were for the bad part of the tract.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, that is not so. I think these public officials have a definite sense of responsibility, and if they would do such a thing they would not be exercising that responsibility. I believe a Board of Revision of Taxes of Philadelphia or any other public body realizes its duty and will perform it.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, this bill was offered in the 1945 Session of the Legislature. At that time it was defeated by a rather overwhelming majority. Under this bill it would be possible for a man to avoid the payment of taxes and still make a profit on his land. If the Board of the Revision of Taxes will subdivide the tract into two pieces, leaving the fat part of the tract, selling for two or three times more than the taxes due, which could be sold by the owner, he could pocket the money and let the city take the remainder and get nothing for it and be stuck with it.

This bill was brought forth in the last Session, and it is rather confusing due to the fact that five words were left out during this Session.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CHUDOFF. I move, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be referred to the Committee on City and County—First Class for further study and possible amendment.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I don't quite follow the gentleman's argument.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I would like to make a statement, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff withdraw his motion so that the gentleman from Philadelphia may make a statement? Because under the Rules the Chair would have to put the motion to recommit.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. CHUDOFF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman withdraws his motion, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths, will proceed.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I do not quite follow the gentleman's argument. He says that because the last Session of the Legislature defeated a similar bill, not the identical bill, that this Session should do the same thing. That appears to me that to be arguing that because something happened before, the same thing should happen now. With that argument the gentleman would never be in favor of any repeal or of any reconsideration.

The second part of the gentleman's argument is that this Board of Revision of taxes would divide the land in such a way that it would not be a situation for the owners or for the public in general. Now, the gentleman does not realize perhaps that there is a personal liability for taxes in Philadelphia and throughout the Commonwealth. He does not realize apparently that the Board of Revision of Taxes or any political group is not simply going to divide land to be held at a profit.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. Chudoff now desire to renew his motion?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I do, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on City and County—First Class.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 22

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 22, Printer's No. 240.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 22.

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, no revisions of the Vehicle Code and the Tractor Code of this Commonwealth have been made since 1929, but frequent amendments have been made and laws on subjects related thereto have been enacted, which render these laws difficult of apprehension and uncertain in their application and effect, and

Whereas, the expected improvement and expansion of State highways coupled with the expected high production of motor vehicles and tractors and the resultant increase in travel and in the use of tractors which will result therefrom, create an immediate and pressing need to revise, modernize and clarify the Motor Vehicle Code, the Tractor Code, and laws on related subjects; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested, during the interim between the present session of the General Assembly and the regular biennial session of 1949, to study, revise, and prepare for reenactment the Vehicle Code, the Tractor Code, together with all their amendments and all separate laws that should properly be incorporated therein, and to present them for the consideration of the General Assembly at its next session.

The commission shall constitute and provide for the appointment of Advisory Committees consisting of administrative officials of the State Government and of the Representatives of Organized Groups having direct interest in and affected by the vehicle code or the tractor code to aid in the study of the problems presented by this resolution.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 26

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 26.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, On the highways of all the states of the United States, the amount of interstate vehicular traffic is increasing, adding to the existing intrastate traffic safety problem additional difficulties, accidents, and fatalities; and

Whereas, The intrinsic hazards of operating motor vehicles on public highways are increased by strange terrain, unfamiliar traffic signs, signals and markings and ignorance of extrastate traffic regulations; and

Whereas, The need for securing a uniform system of traffic signals, signs, and markings and traffic regulations governing operation of vehicles has long been recognized by the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety, the Fourth Conference of which adopted and published in November one thousand nine hundred thirty-five a uniform system of traffic signs, signals, and markings, which system has been approved in this Commonwealth by the Act of June five, one thousand one hundred thirty-seven, Pamphlet Laws one thousand seven hundred eighteen, which amended the appropriate sections of the Vehicle Code of one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine; and

Whereas, A uniform system of traffic regulations governing the operation of vehicles in all states is equally necessary; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws be urged to examine the subject of uniform traffic signals, signs, and markings, and uniform traffic regulations governing operation of vehicles and rules of the road and to promote at the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws the drafting and adoption by the National Conference of an act or acts to make uniform traffic signals, signs, markings and traffic regulations governing operation of vehicles and rules of the road; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to each member of the Board of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and to the presiding officer of the National Conference on Uniform State Laws.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Messrs. WOOD and ELDER offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 7, 1947.

The gift to the people of Pennsylvania of two hundred sixty-eight acres of woodland in the heart of Cook's Forest in Clarion County, by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Braun, of Pittsburgh, is deserving of the highest public commendation.

Mr. and Mrs. Braun purchased this forest tract several years ago, when it was offered for sale by an estate, and when the Commonwealth did not avail itself of the opportunity to purchase it. Thereby, through their foresightedness, their intense desire to preserve this marvelous asset for the people of future generations, and their great generosity, Mr. and Mrs. Braun have bestowed upon the Commonwealth a rare and irreplaceable gift and have earned the gratitude of every Pennsylvanian.

Therefore, be it resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania extend their warm thanks and express their sincere gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Braun, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in recognition of their magnificent contribution to the preservation of one of the great forest areas of Pennsylvania.

And be it further resolved, That the Chief Clerk shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Braun, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.
